Form MJ-04: Marijuana Cultivation Facility Operating Plan Supplemental

Section 2 – Overview of Operations

2.1. Provide an overview of your proposed facility's operations. Include information regarding the flow of marijuana from seed or clone to harvest and transfer from your premises:

The company's cultivation policy and procedures provide guidelines on the continual operation of a secure cannabis cultivation facility in accordance with state regulations and industry best practices. The policies and procedures dictate that the cultivation facility's limited access areas m which all phases of cannabis cultivation take place remain secure limited access areas will be stocked and monitored under surveillance camera system. A designated cultivation manager will be responsible for ensuring full compliance with the operational policies and procedures detailed in the company's Standard Operating Procedures for the cultivation operations In addition to procedural compliance, the cultivation director will be responsible for oversight and on the job training of agents, the prevention and treatment of plant disorders, and will follow a general plant healthcare checklist to ensure a healthy cultivation environment for cultivation, processing, and curing practices will be consistent with industry best practice and all documentation will be maintained in accordance with regulation and company policy. The Cultivation Manager/Director will be responsible for recording, monitoring and maintenance of cultivation records. These records will be made available for inspection by request of law enforcement and the Marijuana Control Board of the State of Alaska.

The company will follow best practices of cannabis agriculture in the industry and implement policies and procedures as established by the USDA Organic Agriculture (but will not advertise that the marijuana is organic) standards and practices. The company understands it cannot become a certified USDA organic operation nor obtain or utilized USDA organic certification nor use the "organic" on any of its packaging and labeling. The company will follow the State of Alaska, Department of Natural Resources, Division Agriculture Alaska Grown Certification Program policies as well as seek the Alaska Grown Certification and employ the logo on products as permitted The Company's cultivation operations are governed by multiple laws, regulations, and ordinances. The cultivation director must ensure that all applicable law, statute, regulation and ordinance are followed. In the performance of all cultivation activities. The entire Nome Grown team is required to understand and implement policies and procedures to ensure the company fosters a culture of safety while producing and retailing the highest quality product possible.

Continued on last page.

Section 3 – Prohibitions

Review the requirements under 3 AAC 306.405 and 3 AAC 306.410.

3.1. I certify that the marijuana cultivation facility will not: Initials

a. sell, distribute, or transfer any marijuana or marijuana product to a consumer, with or without compensation; [illegible]

b. allow any person, including a licensee, employee, or agent, to consume marijuana or marijuana product on the licensed premises or within 20 feet of the exterior of any building or outdoor cultivation facility; or [illegible]

c. treat or otherwise adulterate marijuana with any organic or nonorganic chemical or compound to alter the color, appearance, weight, or odor of the marijuana. [illegible]

Section 4 – Cultivation Plan

Review the requirements under 3 AAC 306.420 and 3 AAC 306.430.

4.1. Describe the size of the space(s) the marijuana cultivation facility intends to be under cultivation, including dimensions and overall square footage. Provide your calculations below:

The Nome Grown cultivation facility will consist of the following:

Flower Room - 261 square feet
Vegetative Area - 238 square feet

Total area under cultivation - 499 square feet

AMCO Received 11/1/2018
Received by AMCO 7.15.21.