On 9-25-25, an inspection was conducted at your establishment. On duty clerk Melissa Anderson was asked to provide proof of server education. She advised me that she hasn't been to training yet but has been employed for longer than 30 days. She is aware of the 30-day exception and stated she has attempted to sign up for the class but technical issues with the web site prevented her from being able to do so. When asked if her supervisors knew she didn't have server education, she replied they were aware. She was advised not to sell any more alcoholic beverages until she could provide proof of server training to which did later provide proof of course completion.

Your attention is directed to AS 04.21.025: Alcohol server education and AS 04.16.150: Licensee responsible for violations

Good afternoon,
I am writing in response to a Notice of Violation for one of my locations.
Case number 25-1484 regarding store 6201 for AK Inc. in Nikiski, AK.
We had an employee who was on shift and had not completed their Alcohol Server Education class (TAPS) within the first 30 days of her employment.
The employee has since received her training and card.
Since this failure we have made some immediate adjustments to ensure we never have an employee on shift without their TAPS card within the first 2 weeks of employment. WE have implemented all new hires will be scheduled for TAPS Class during their onboarding process. We will track every employee as we track their other required class learnings. We will have reporting to ensure we are 100% in compliance with the state and doing our best for our community.
Please let me know if you would like further details or have any questions.
Thank you,

Michael Rhea
