Mr. Hall -

Thank you for your follow up and for providing additional information regarding this situation. I apologize for the lack of response to your earlier email; the email address that we had on file with AMCO is one that we used early in our business but is no longer monitored regularly. Your help in updating it with your office will avoid any further missed communications.

We are getting the MJ-20's corrected and I will submit that in a separate email tomorrow or Thursday, at the latest. With regard to the NOV, we fell behind with our DOR Excise Taxes for December 2020, received the demand for payment in January and the NOV on February 18, 2021; payment was made to DOR on March 2, 2021. As you noted, there was an emailed response that was sent to your office showing proof of payment. We believed that to satisfy the situation and did not understand that this satisfied NOV was applicable when completing our license renewal application. Please accept our apology for the confusion. While we do not plan to receive another NOV, your detailed explanation regarding this one will ensure that we do not make this error on future renewal applications.

Again, I will submit the corrected Form MJ-20s separately in the next day or two.

With Appreciation,
Monique Daigle

Monique - this is just a courtesy follow up about our phone conversation earlier this afternoon regarding your incomplete renewal notices.

- Email address on file for both Monique Daigle as well as the main email address for #13603 has now been changed to akgreenbee@gmail.com
- Attached is a copy of the NOV you reported not being previously aware of. It would appear another member of your organization was made aware & responded previously.
- Also attached is a copy of the current entity documents on file that you verbally confirmed is still valid and have gave permission for AMCO to use for this year's renewal documents.
- Also attached is the original incomplete notice with the instructions on what needs to be corrected on the MJ-20s as well as the required written response.
- As documented on the incomplete notice, the deadline to avoid the $1,000 late fee expired back on 12/23/2021. It's now 1/10/2022. Therefore, you will need to either a) submit the late fee payment with your corrections or b) attach a letter of explanation I can submit to my supervisor detailing why you feel it should be waived. I naturally cannot promise anything, but I can veruft she will require more explanation than has been currently provided.

If you have further questions or concerns about any part of this renewal process, please do not hesitate to call me at 907-269-0350 or emailmarijuana.licensing@alaska.gov We will do our very best to respond within 24-48 hours. Please submit your corrections, etc. ASAP.

Thanks,

Nathan Hall

Good morning.

I'm following up on the incomplete notice you received back on 12/9/21. I checked with my colleague who confirmed this was not resolved while I was out of the office on holiday. The deadline to avoid the $1,000 late fee has long since expired as it is now 1/5/22. Please contact AMCO ASAP to resolve this matter.

Thanks,

Nathan Hall

Hello,

Our office is in receipt of the app and after a review of the documents, the following items are required to complete the update process, as explained in the attached letter and related documents.

Please note:

- AMCO does not require nor needs copies of documents already approved. Simply reply back to this email with the corrected pages asked for attached ASAP. (Email is strongly preferred for faster processing as I'm still currently working remotely, let us know if the front desk should be on the lookout for corrections in the secure drop box or mail pile.
- The correction to page 1 of the MJ-20s is required separately for all 3 officials, whereas one written response to the NOV covers all 3 of the aforementioned officials.
- Don't hesitate to call or write back if you have questions. I always strive to have licensees/applicants avoid the $1,000 late feewhenever humanly possible.

Thanks,

Nathan Hall
