Dear AMCO Staff,

Yes, please enter my objection to this new/different license application #10901 at the same location, on Main St in Talkeetna.

What is this some trickery ? Like a fake pass in football, to draw the objections to one license, while the other remains unnoticed, so it can clear the Board, as no objections found.

Looks like a "Bait and Switch Tactic" employed by shyster merchants. Except we the public and the AMCO board is the intended victim.

Multiple applications to the same location need to be rejected automatically. Some suspicious, deviant , moves going on here. Please investigate this thoroughly !

Good morning;

The applicant for this marijuana establishment objection has initiated a different application with license #10901 in the same location. Are you wanting your objection to be considered for this new application also?.

Thanks

Received. Thank you.

Objections are considered by the board when the complete application is considered by the board. Please know that we do not let objector(s) know when the application(s) he/she is objection to goes in front of the board. It is the objector's responsibility to check back with us or check our agenda that is published on our website seven days before the meeting if the objector(s) wants to speak about his/her objection to the marijuana control board .

Thank you

Dear Sir,

I am objecting to this Marijuana Establishment License, #10641. DBA JMDN Enterprises LLC , 13465 E Main St , Talkeetna . Email, joe@thehighexpedition.com

To whom it may concern: Talkeetna Marijuana Shop on Main St .

Talkeetna is just getting more and more thrill seekers. An end of the road community, unincorporated, with no Law Enforcement.
Jet boats racing up and down the Talkeetna River, ATV's racing up and down roads,streets and trails. Zip Lines in the woods, for those adrenaline junkies.

Talkeetna used to have a Bluegrass Festival years ago, but that got out of hand, and moved.

Pot and booze got people acting crazy.
Then there was a Miner's Day Festival, commemorating the old Mining Days. But that also got out of hand, drunken rowdy behaviors demanding Alaska State Troopers, time and money. Finally locals said enough of that.

Now some new characters, want to take advantage of the current Tourist crowds.

Talkeetna relies on the Alaska State Troopers for crowd control, drunks,and those rowdy ones, disturbing the peace.

Marijuana is just another ingredient, to incite the restless,thrill seekers, to greater rowdiness and violence !

This proposed marijuana outlet does not belong here, in downtown Talkeetna ! This is not the kind of business Talkeetna needs !

Please reject this location and license.

Sincerely, Art Wettanen
Talkeetna since 1976
