Your application is still about the 7th one in the queue. We review application continuously, however, right now we are mainly focused on applications that have come back to us with corrections as the deadline to deem an application complete is 10/27, so we are in board preparation mode basically. Additionally, examiners are not exclusively reviewing marijuana applications, we have other duties also, including processing liquor licenses.

Thanks
Jane

Subject: Cue status

Good afternoon,

I wanted to see if my status has changed in the cue for my application to manufacture marijuana products. Will the application review process to determine completeness continue moving forward even if the limit for applications for the meeting is met? Or will it stall out until the meeting has completed then resume?

Sincerely,

Christopher Wilhelm
