Section 2 – Purpose

How does use of the identified area as alternating premises stimulate tourism or promote activities open to the general public? (3 AAC 305.650(2)):

We host the largest event in the state in August each year. We host a multitude of events during the rest of the season. Part of our mission statement reads, "Alaska State Fair Inc. provides a center for the Alaskan community to gather in a dynamic and safe atmosphere throughout the year." We strive to honor that mission statement.

Section 3 – Detailed Premises Diagram

☑ Attach a copy of your most current premises diagram (AB-02 or AB-14). This diagram should meet the requirements listed on the current AB-02 form regarding contents and labeling.

- If you are requesting only a portion of your approved licensed premises to be an alternating premises, outline that portion in a color other than red. If you are requesting your entire approved licensed premises be an alternating premises, indicate that in writing on your premises diagram or in a separate statement.

☑ Provide a diagram showing where alcoholic beverages will be stored during the time the identified area is unlicensed. If the location is within your existing licensed premises, outline the area in a color other than red and label it. If the location is not within your existing licensed premises, provide a copy of your off-site warehouse permit (AS 04.21.060).
