AMCO Case #: 25-1627

This is a notice to you as licensee that an alleged violation has occurred. If the Alcoholic Beverage Control Board decides to act against your license, under the provisions of AS 44.62.330 - AS 44.62.630 (Administrative Procedures Act) you will receive an Accusation and Notice of your right to an Administrative Hearing.

Note: This is not an accusation or a criminal complaint.

On 10-21-25, an inspection was conducted at your establishment. First observed was that the $1,500 civil penalty sign is post at least 3 feet above the top of the entrance door making it not obvious to see. On-duty manager Christal D. Rose was asked to provide proof of current server education. She provided me TAP card #307166, which had expired 9-22-25. Ms. Rose stated she receives messages about checking her employees credentials but her management couldn't keep track of hers. Ms. Rose was told to stop selling alcoholic beverages until she provided an Alcoholic Beverage Control Board representative proof of current server education. Ms. Rose was issued a citation for expired server education.

Good afternoon,

We take this violation seriously and in order to prevent any similar re-occurrence, we have now taken steps and implemented a process that outlines and calculates each employee's alcohol server education cards' expiration date as well as testing date, including all managers as well as Renewals. Previously was not tracking renewals. As such, we are now able to track and ensure that such a violation does not happen again in the future.

As for the current violation, Mrs. Rose was able to complete her renewal as of 10/30/25.

If you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact us.
