Notice of Intended Disposition

Notice is here given in accordance with the Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (NAGPRA), 43 CFR 10.6 (c), of the intent to transfer custody of Native American human remains in the control of the U.S. Department of the Interior, National Park Service, Western Arctic National Parklands, Noatak National Preserve.

A detailed assessment of the human remains was made by Noatak National Preserve officials in consultation with representatives of the Native Village of Noatak.

In 2010, human remains were removed from site AMR-211, in Northwest Arctic Borough, AK. The human remains were collected from the ground surface at Noatak National Preserve by a park visitor. In August 2010, the park visitor transported the human remains to the National Park Service administrative office in Fairbanks, AK. No known individuals were identified.

Officials of Noatak National Preserve have determined that, pursuant to 43 CFR 10.2 (d)(1), the human remains described above represent the physical remains of one individual of Native American ancestry.

Lastly, officials of the Noatak National Preserve have determined that, pursuant to 43 CFR 10.6 (a), a relationship of shared group identity can be reasonably traced between the human remains and the Native Village of Noatak.

Representatives of any other Indian tribe or Native Hawaiian organization that wishes to claim ownership or control of the human remains should contact Maija Lukin, Superintendent, Noatak National Preserve, P.O. Box 1029, Kotzebue, AK 99752, telephone (907) 442-3890, before April 28, 2019. Disposition of the human remains to the Native Village of Noatak may proceed after that date if no additional claimants come forward.

Noatak National Preserve is responsible for notifying the Native Village of Noatak that this notice has been published.
