On 5-29-25, an inspection was conducted at your establishment. Dept. of Labor work permits were asked for working 16 and 17-year-olds. Management could not immediately provide the documents and was requested to send them to me. Having not heard back by 6-2-25, I contacted Licensee Joe White for the information. The following day, 6-3-25, Uncle Joe's Pizzeria manger, R. Trahan, sent a work permit for 16 year-old E.P. which had been signed on 6-2-25. When asked how many days E.P. worked without the permit, Mr. Trahan stated, she had been hired the previous week and that she had worked 4 days.

RE: AMCO Case # 25-0720

Investigator Hamilton,

In response to the Notice of Violation dated June 6, 2025, I have instructed our management team at all locations to be sure that Department of Labor work permits are issued for new hires that are 16 or 17 years of age BEFORE they begin their first day of work.

This first infraction was due to some miscommunication. My management team believed that the new hire was going to send in the work permit to the Department of Labor herself when it should have been the responsibility of management at Uncle Joe's Pizzeria.

This will not be an issue again.

Joe White
President
Uncle Joe's Pizzeria

Good Morning,

I was at the Tudor location last week doing an inspection. As part of the inspection, I look at work permits. I asked your manager to send me the work permits of your underage people employed, 16 and 17 year olds only. As of today, I have not received anything. Could you please send me the work permits of your 16 and 17 year olds at the Tudor location. Thank you.

Joe
