Cindy – first page is shareholder, shares held, and percentage of ownership percentage, and second page has contact info/addresses for each share holder. Let me know what else you need to review the application.

Also – the initial report for U.N.M.e, LLC was filed by Jason's office a few mins ago – see attached, thanks!

Good Morning Cindy!

Yes I can provide some clarification – U.N.Me, LLC is owned by Melissa Cervantes, and that entity holds the shares owned by Melissa – Jason Brandeis represents Melissa – JASON – can you please file the initial report or tell your client to file the initial report for this entity so that AMCO can see who owns it ASAP?

The shares owned by the licensees have not been filed with the corporation commission yet because we were in the process of raising more funds, the company does have a sheet with all the shareholders and their respective shares owned, would you like me to transmit that to you? All affiliates listed are shareholders of FSE, INC. the sheet I am referencing will have all the names of the share owners and respective amounts owned.

Martin Tacke is making $25k worth of improvements to the building that are specific to the needs of a manufacturing lab, in exchange he is receiving 625 shares of FSE, Inc., which equals $40 bucks a share, which is what all the other monetary investors received for their investment in the company. Martin, and all the other listed persons will be listed as shareholders on the corporation website once we fill the change of officials paperwork. Again, we were in process of raising capital and that is why that change of officials showing ownership changes has yet to take place, but we do have the spread sheet showing ownership (which I will get from Shaun Tacke, the company's CFO asap) and send over to you.

Jason will you respond all to this and let us know if you can file that initial report today or have Melissia do it? I know you are in Colorado today, so if you cant can you have Melissa send me authorization to file it for her so we can show her 100% ownership of U.N.Me, LLC?

Cindy – does my explaination above clarify things? Other than the share spreadsheet, is there any thing else I can provide to help the AMCO team review this application?

Jana,

Our examiners are having a lot of trouble figuring out the ownership of this entity. We thought we would start with asking you to explain it. Of particular interest is the entity which is listed as an affiliate, U.N.Me, LLC, which has not filed its initial report in CBPL, and there is no obvious connection to FSE, Inc, and the landlord, Martin Tacke, receiving 625 shares of the ownership of FSE, Inc as part of the rental contract.

Can you enlighten us? We are working on the incomplete letter and can't figure out where to start.
