It's been said THC dilates the capillaries and increases blood flow in the smallest blood vessels which enhances microcirculation and magnifies sensitivity and sensation. Once applied you'll need to give it 20 minutes to an hour to fully absorb and become active on sensitive areas. No, it will not get you high in the traditional sense (many say enjoying a bit of smoke or one of our lovely edibles as a pregame only enhances the use of this product), many report more of a localized sensation of pleasure. Utilizing all natural ingredients - ENJOY!
