Hello,

Your change of officials and LLC operating agreement were received and uploaded into the licensing system. David Vandergriff has been removed from your application. You can now use the new public notice to re-post for 5 additional days and re-notify the local government and then submit a new posting affidavit and local government notice affidavit.

Thank you,
AMCO Staff

Thank you for your reply I will hold back on sending any info. Until I see the list to complete, unless there is something you might need now. I will be looking for items of compliance

Thank you

> Hello. My name is James m. Harris and currently 100% owner of (Croy's Enterprises LLC) Licensee # 10137. My partner David Vandergriff or Member has assigned or otherwise disposed of all interest in this Company. This Notice of Change of Officials has been documented and sent off to the State of Alaska Div. of Corporations, Business and Professional Licensing, Corporation Section. They will send me back documents with the stamp required. As per 3 AAC 306.040. (2) it is difficult noted to report the change on a form prescribed by the board. On April 24th. 2016 e-mail to the board from a vander grift the Hypothetical question was asked and the response was that the form had not been created yet. As that it remains now only one of the original owners to remove the other I would hope that we are able to keep things simple to minimize any delays in moving forward. I am going to sent Info. Related to this issue and documents by mail today. When form is created knowing that we all are a little behind, please send it to me and I will do my best to comply as needed.
