Good afternoon,

I started to review your application and realized that you never submitted MJ-01. Your application cannot be reviewed until we receive MJ-01. I know we sent you an email stating your application had been moved to the under review queue, however, it was moved into that queue in error.

Please submit MJ-01 to begin the review of your application no later than Monday if you wish to keep your spot in line, otherwise it will go in the back of the line. MJ-01 is an important component to the application and therefore it cannot be reviewed without it.

Thank you

Jane P Sawyer
