Good afternoon, J. Grant;

I have reviewed the corrections submitted.

There is one item in your response to the incomplete letter I would like to address, and that is the LLC's operating agreement.

For clarification purposes, AMCO is not housed under Division of Corporations, Business and Professional Licensing. In fact, we are a separate office under Department of Commerce, Community and Economic Development.

The reason we request the LLC's operating agreement is because it is required to be submitted as part of the application under our regulations, except that our regulation (3 AAC 306.020 (b)(3)(B)) calls it limited liability company agreement (also known as operating agreement).

If you still feel you should not be required to submit this document. I ask you to please clearly state you decline to submit and I will put it as part of your application for the board.

Respectfully,

Jane Sawyer
