This is a notice to you as a licensee that you are being issued a notice of violation for the purposes described in 3 AAC 306.806(e). A description of the violation is as follows,
NOTE: This is not an accusation or criminal complaint.

On 07/31/2024 AMCO Investigator Joe Linger entered your facility to conduct a routine inspection. Investigator Linger requested to see the marijuana handler permits of each person working inside the facility that day. One person, later identified as Daniel Clemons, stated he didn't have his on him. He was given an opportunity to present it before the inspection ended. Clemons left the facility and didn't return. I received an email later that day that included a screenshot of both Clemons person of interest background check, and his certificate of completion of the Alaska Marijuana Handler Permit Training Course dated 07/31/2024. Checking on Clemons original handler permit revealed it to have expired on 08/14/2022. Clemons was seen in the AMCO office on the morning of 08/01/2024 getting his new marijuana handler permit. During the time his handler permit was expired he worked at your limited cultivation helping harvest and trim on three dates, 03/28/2024, 04/22/2024, and 08/14/2024. Re: NOV 8.3.24

We are going to make a spreadsheet for all of our contract workers and their handler card expiration dates to be better prepared in case they are not keeping up with things. And also require that they renew at least 2 months in advance to not taking any chances. Handler Card and Driver License as well.

NOV 8.3.24

One of our contract labor workers had their handler card lapse when we had an inspection. Situation was remedied quickly. We implemented new protocol's to track Employee and Contract Labor expiration dates to make sure everyone is compliant. No further issues since then.
