Rachel,

Here is the updated incomplete letter. I entered the new business license, you should be able to go back and make the necessary corrections.

There were some changes made to the letter to reflect the corrections/additional documents you need to submit.

Thank you
Jane

Jane,
We did decide to do a partnership not individual for The Giving Tree. I apologize for the inconvenience and appreciate your help. And I will absolutely include the business name and license number from now on.

So you are not removing Joseph as you originally stated? Because that's how I drafted the incomplete letter based on that.

I just need to confirm.

Also, please always use the name of the business and your license number when contacting us.

Subject: Questions about licensing type

Jane,
I am making the corrections that you suggested and I am having issues trying to change my license type from individual to partner. Do I need to start a whole new application?Can you help with this? Thank you for your time.
