I forgot to mention that I am out of the office starting Wednesday and will be back mid next week, so I need to know as soon as possible what you are doing.

Note: this email or any follow up email between the applicant and AMCO regarding incomplete letters does not extend the 90-day deadline for the application to be deemed complete. The deadline for this application to be deemed complete by the AMCO director is 12/3/17. This means you need to have all your corrections 100% complete and accurate by this day regardless of how many times you and I go back and forth.

Thank you

So you are not removing Joseph as you originally stated? Because that's how I drafted the incomplete letter based on that.

I just need to confirm.

Also, please always use the name of the business and your license number when contacting us.

Subject: Questions about licensing type

Jane,
I am making the corrections that you suggested and I am having issues trying to change my license type from individual to partner. Do I need to start a whole new application?Can you help with this? Thank you for your time.
