Greetings esteemed members of our community and local government.

As per the request of the Marijuana Control Board this morning the applicant for a Limited Cultivation Facility license, Northern Dreams License #13752, must re notice the local governments and the community council. We also would be happy to make a formal presentation to the community council regarding the facility. Please contact me at 907-887-6130 with any questions about this application. You can also reach Andrew Wessel, owner and operator at the number on the public notice.

Thank you for your service to our community and we look forward to providing economic development and jobs to the community of Sutton.
