FRIDAY NIGHT MAGIC—Looking for a way to play Magic while meeting new friends and winning cool foil prize cards? Friday Night Magic is designed to bring casual players together on Friday nights to play for fun in a less-competitive event. Try it out and discover why Friday night is the best night of the week. All are welcome to come and play without joining the tournament. Free, 6:30 to 11 p.m. (Bosco's, 2606 Spenard Rd.)

THE CAPITOL STEPS—The Capitol Steps have elevated political satire to an art form. Before The Daily Show, Full Frontal, and The Colbert Report, this Washington, DC-based comedy troupe gave audiences laugh cramps with their bipartisan lampooning. The Capitol Steps began in 1981 as a group of Senate staffers who set out to satirize their employers, and they haven't let up since. The troupe returns to Anchorage with a new show of musical and political comedy. And if you've been keeping up with the news, you know there's no shortage of material. It doesn't matter if you're a Republican or Democrat, a snowflake or a deplorable: neither side of the aisle is safe from mockery! $32.50 - $71.75 at anchorageconcerts.org, 7:30 p.m. (Atwood Concert Hall, 621 W 6th Ave.)

FRIDAY NIGHT DANCE LOUNGE—Every Friday night dance the night away to some of your favorite Salsa, Bachata, Merengue and Kizomba songs. $10, 9:30 p.m. (Alaska Dance Promotions, 300 E. Dimond Blvd.)
