FROM:  James Hoelscher, Enforcement Chief

RE: Enforcement Report, Marijuana

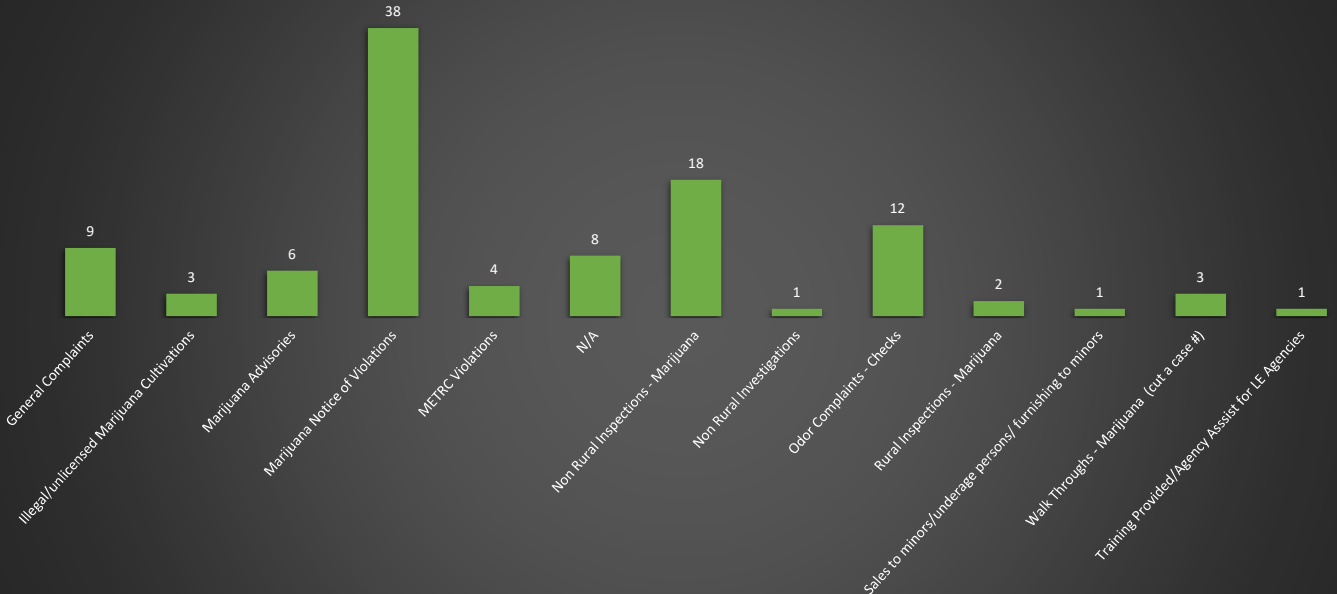

Michael Chiesa, Assistant Enforcement Chief

The AMCO Enforcement Unit is currently fully-staffed and continues to respond to complaints and answer questions, inspect premises and investigate observed and reported violations.

AMCO Enforcement is working on updating our training for patrol officers program to reflect changes to Title 4. We plan on releasing the revised training and submitting an updated curriculum to the Alaska Police Standards Council (APSC) to be utilized in the APSC ACADIS Training portal and accessible by any Alaska Law Enforcement Officer,

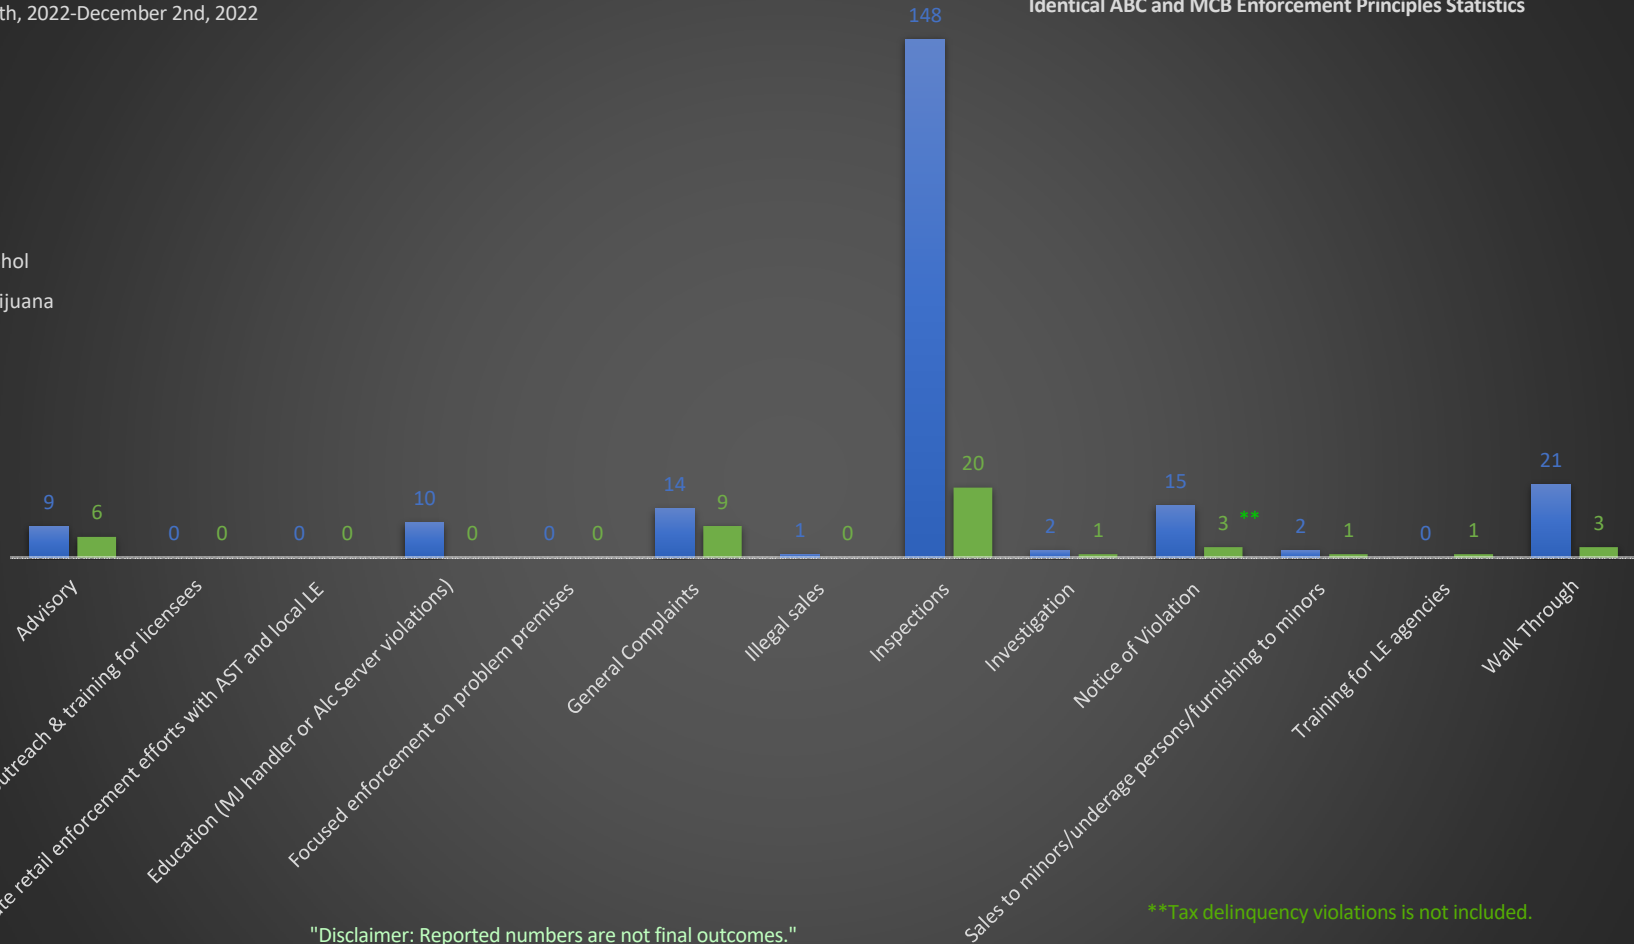

The AMCO Enforcement Unit just completed training and site visits of marijuana premises with representatives from Metrc.
