Good afternoon -

I was surprised to receive this NOV - I sent our payment to the for August and September in to the department of revenue back on Oct 28. I did go down to the bank yesterday to inquire about the check status - it was indeed not cashed. I presume the Dept of Revenue never received the payment, that somehow it was misplaced or lost in the mail.

As of yesterday I have had the last check canceled and a new one issued. I understand this is immaterial in that our bill has still not been paid, but I do want to assure you we are acting in good faith to fulfill our tax burden. I am attaching a letter from the bank demonstrating the veracity of my statement and to provide documentation for our records that this matter is acknowledged and moving forward.

Thank you for your patience; by the time of the AMCO meeting on Dec 13 this issue will be resolved.
