MEMORANDUM

TO:	Marijuana Control Board	DATE:	September 11, 2019
FROM:	Erika McConnell, Director	RE:	Studio 420 AK, #19624, Retail Store

This is an application for a retail store, proposed to be located at 4608 Spenard Road, Suite E, in Anchorage. The application is submitted by 420 Enterprises, LLC Co, which is owned by Tammy Thinoi 95% and Abe Spicola 5%.

This application first came before the board in May of 2019, but was tabled because the applicants were not present. The board requested the applicants to come to the next meeting in person. Mr. Spicola and Ms. Thinoi attended the July meeting in Fairbanks. The board did not make a motion on the application at that meeting, which denied the application.

The applicants submitted a request for an informal conference with me. At that informal conference and by subsequent research, I learned that the information I had provided to the board was not fully accurate. This memo corrects the information to the best of my abilities.

As noted in the previous memo, Mr. Spicola was charged with "stealing tens of thousands of dollars from nonprofits" in 2011 as a pull-tab operator. The charges filed against Mr. Spicola included three counts of commercial bribery (violating a fiduciary duty, AS 11.46.660(a)(2)), two counts of scheming to defraud (AS 11.46.600(a)(2)), and two counts of falsifying business records (AS 11.46.630(a)(1)). Mr. Spicola pled guilty to lesser charges. His conviction was more than five years ago, so he is not disqualified under AS 17.38.200(i) or 3 AAC 306.010(d).

While I previously informed the board that Court View shows that Mr. Spicola owes almost $120,000 to the State of Alaska, I have since learned that when payments are made to entities other than the court system, those payments are not logged in Court View, and so it cannot be assumed that Court View is accurate.

While I have not been able to determine the full amount of money that Mr. Spicola was required to pay as a result of his conviction, I can confirm that he has paid over $33,000 to the Department of Law for distribution to the non-profit he was accused of defrauding, as restitution. He has provided documents from the court stating that he has "fully satisfied the restitution judgment awarded."

Non-restitution judgements are collected by Shared Services in the Department of Administration. Shared Services reports that the jail surcharge and the cost of appointed counsel was paid in full for this case. They also report that there is a current balance (exact amount unknown) for the police training surcharge (initial charge was $200 according to Court View).

Studio 420 AK has provided additional information for the board which is attached.

Studio 420 AK would first like to start by thanking the members of the board for their time.

Tammy Thinoi Member 95% and myself Abe Spicola Member 5% of 420 Enterprises LLC Co. D.B.A. Studio 420 AK located at 4608 Spenard Road in the Tesoro Strip Mall appreciate having the chance to share the story of how Studio 420 AK came to be.

My story of Abe Spicola is complicated but yet made me and brought me to this point in time right now. I have always been intrigued with the law growing up. My grandfather was the first blind Judge in Colorado. I always thought I was going to be a lawyer as an adult but sometimes life takes you on a different course.

I began my career in security and investigations as a Loss Prevention Agent for Nordstrom. I worked as an Agent for Nordstrom for 5 years when I was given an opportunity to become the Security Manager of Gottchalks located in the University Mall. I then became a Private Investigator for Quantum Investigations and a Process Server for them as well. I went on and got hired as a Temp Hire at McLaughlin Youth Center. I then became a full-time Youth Counselor II on the Closed Treatment Unit the most secured unit at the facility. I worked there for several years. I must say that working at McLaughlin Youth Center till this day has been the most rewarding job I've ever had.

One night while working a double shift at McLaughlin, ending at 7am, I was looking for opportunities to advance my career. I came across an ad for a State of Alaska job for a new investigation group for the Department of Revenue. The investigation group would investigate excise laws including tobacco and gaming. I applied for the job thinking I have nothing to lose but everything to gain. The job would be a big advance for me and I thought maybe I didn't have the experience. I remember at the job interview calling my wife and saying that I was going to leave because everybody else was so much more qualified for the position. My wife reminded me that I had nothing to lose because I already had a great job and to stay and see what happens. I had the interview, I was myself and it went great.

I got the job and became at the time the youngest Investigator III for the State of Alaska. I became very knowledgeable in Gaming statutes and regulations. I would help interview new investigators with Chief Investigator Carla Culbreath. I was the one who interviewed, helped hire and trained AMCO Investigator Jeff Rukes when he applied at the Department of Revenue. My employment at the Department of Revenue had its ups along with many downsides. I had a Deputy Director who constantly harassed me and the Union was brought in to investigate. The Union determined an apology was in order from the Deputy Director and I was promised that the Deputy Director would receive training on how to properly communicate to staff. I was to receive ongoing training in investigation to expand my opportunities. The Deputy Director was later replaced when a new Governor took office.

Chief Investigator Carla Culbreath would later resign and return to A.P.D. She approached me before she left and stated that she was worried for me because she thought that new management was going to make things hard for me. My Investigator Partner Scott Stair became Chief Investigator and I thought things would be great. I was so wrong, my friend began his new position by writing me up for taking to many personal days within the year. I reminded him that the year included F.M.L.A leave due to my wife's complications during her pregnancy and that it was all approved. He put me on notice. The Union was made of aware of the situation and a formal grievance was launched. During the grievance procedures I was treated unfairly by Chief Scott Stair. The treatment was so bad I felt the best thing for everybody would be for me to drop the grievance and resign effective immediately.

I opened up a Pull-Tab store called Lucky Times Pull-Tabs located at the same location that Studio 420 AK will hopefully be. I partnered up with A.C.T. who remembered me from working at Department of Revenue where they were looking for a gaming operator to run their gaming permit. Our agreement with A.C.T. would be that they would receive 30% and they would help promote us at their plays and help run the shop. The agreement did not last long due to the fact that A.C.T did not want to help in any capacity. We had one last conversation where I asked A.C.T if they could help pay for an expensive point of sales machine and they stated no.

I decided that A.C.T was not the non-profit I wanted to partner up with because I wanted to help a group that touched more Alaskans. I was approached by ABATE Motorcycle training and safety group. They stated that they would help the business in any way to become our partner. They stated they would help staff and help pay for the point of sales machine. The group received their profits quarterly in accordance to regulations. Lucky-Times and ABATE were partners for 4 years and we were in the process of starting a lottery for motorcycle safety and training.

During the time of Lucky Times 5 years in business S.T.A.R (Standing Together Against Rape) and Lucky Times Lottery teamed up to start Alaska's first state lottery. Lucky Times became the only company in Alaska's history to give away three of the largest lottery payouts ever. The lotteries included a $500,000 lottery, a $350,000 lottery and a $250,000 lottery. Lucky Times also partnered with Veterans Aviation Outreach for one of the lotteries.

The State of Alaska's Department of Revenue launched an investigation on Lucky Times Pull-Tabs. The State of Alaska investigation was based on a complaint from A.C.T the first non-profit. They claimed that Lucky Times stilled owed them money and that I tried to bribe them in reference to the point of sales machine. The State of Alaska also fully investigated all business activities with all four non-profits that Lucky Times Pull-Tabs had partnered with.

In conclusion to the investigation and the trial proceedings Lucky-Times was not charged with any charges brought forth by A.C.T. A.C.T did not receive any restitution. All bribery charges and falsifying records were dropped. No charges were ever filed in connection to all three lotteries. I did fall behind in payments to ABATE for three quarters due to lack of business, bad publicity and the State of Alaska suspending my license and my non-profits gaming permit. I took a plea deal to misapplication of property in relations to the last year of business. I took the plea deal because I had a young son, a public defender who was too busy and out of his league to fight the House of Special Prosecution and because I failed to pay my non-profit before paying business expenses. I also plead guilty to receiving unemployment benefits after I left my job at the Department of Revenue because they stated I was too busy for full time work while remodeling Lucky-Times. The investigator who investigated the unemployment case stated it was the first case she had ever seen where other State of Alaska investigators were pressuring her to bring forth the case in connections with their state case. The Unemployment Investigator also stated that she thought for sure I was going to fight the charges in trial. It must be noted that Chief Investigator Scott Stair was in charge of the Departments of Revenues handling of the case.

In 2011, I became a felon and life has been hard for me, my wife and son. I have paid back all restitution to the State of Alaska, Department of Labor and ABATE. I have completed probation and all requirements. I have since worked at many entry level jobs trying to build a new career while always remembering what I learned from my past. I have been thankful for every job opportunity since then no matter how entry level or how hard. I have worked at Alaska Wholesale Flower Warehouse and at AK Frost. I currently have two jobs as a delivery driver for Service Printing and as an inspector/surveyor for AFIRM where I inspect and survey businesses and personal residences for insurance companies.

Tammy Thinoi and I met while working at AK Frost In cultivation. I worked as a cultivator and in the retail store. Tammy continues to work at AK Frost as a cultivator and she also works as a massage therapist at Allure Day Spa. Tammy and I would talk about opening up a retail store as we would trim plants and clean. I asked if she wanted to be partners in opening up a marijuana store and she agreed.

I knew my old business location was still available for lease. I immediately called AMCO Instigator Jeff Rukes to first apologize for hurt feelings from the past investigation. I told him I wanted to move on from the past and start a new business opportunity in marijuana retail. Investigator Rukes helped me look up my case in Court View to verify if the appropriate amount of time had passed to qualify me for a license. Investigator Rukes stated that enough time had passed and that the building location was in a perfect location for marijuana retail. I also verified with Ryan Yelle from the Municipality to verify the building location was in the right zoning area and again it was determined that it was.

Tammy Thinoi and I have worked hard to complete the State and Municipality license requirements and were so excited to be before the Marijuana Control Board. I understand that the board had information that was not correct. The information you received was wrong for two reasons. The restitution involved in the case was $35,000 to the ABATE and $5,000 to Department of Labor and both have been paid in full. I know you have concerns over my ability to handle money. Studio 420 AK will be hiring an accountant for our finances and I (Abe Spicola) will have no role in the handling of the business finance.

Tammy Thinoi will be the Manager of Studio 420 AK and will be in charge of the day to day activities of the store. I will help support and work at Studio 420 AK on an as needed basis. Tammy Thinoi will be in charge of hiring, firing, training, paperwork, deposit and all reports.

I believe that the past has lead and prepared me for this new journey. I feel every job and every person I have met after my conviction has taught me something. I met ex AMCO Director Cynthia Franklin while working at Alaska Experience Theatre where she volunteered for the International Film Festival. She gave us helpful information on how to proceed with this informal appeal process. I have reunited with Kelley Mazzei with the State of Alaska marijuana tax and she also gave us great advice.

Studio 420 AK will not be just a marijuana shop but an art studio as well. We will give local artist a chance to showcase their interpretation of marijuana.

I know you question if it's in the publics best interest for us to open Studio 420 AK. I know you have doubt about my character and my past. I say to you please consider that Henry Ford had 5 business that all failed and left him broke before he launched Ford Motor Company. I say to the Board please give me a second chance at becoming the person that I've grown to become.

Subject: Letter of recommendation

To the AMCO Board members

My name is Tammy Partee, I have worked with Abe Spicola for over a year now as a Loss Control Surveyor at AFIRM.

I performed his final training upon his initial testing and clearance for field work in the insurance inspections of residential, commercial, industrial and workers compensation cases for various underwriters who cover those policies within and across the State of Alaska.

Abe is a very personable type of person who can talk to anyone, has great energy, is always professional and positive, has an eye for detail and for following paperwork requests that require detailed answers and explanations to the questions on issues the underwriters ask for specifically.

I would highly recommend Abe Spicola in his quest to open a Marijuana Retail Store as I feel he would bring a new energy to the retail field that I have not seen in the many Marijuana businesses that I have seen on a professional level. Abe has the ability to bring out the good in people and communicates in a professional manner with dignity and applies his experience to all that he does. He is always willing to learn new techniques and applies changes when required and will seek out information if he does not know the answer.

If you should have any questions you may text or call my cell number below.

Sincerely,

Tammy Partee

To whom it may concern:

Abraham Spicola worked for Alaska Flower Market / Statewide Wholesale from April 2016- June 2017. I have known Abe since April 2016 and it is my pleasure to recommend him for employment.

Immediately in his position as warehouse manager he demonstrated his abilities to be a quick learner and self-starter that carried out daily duties and tasks with very little to no supervision. With great energizing enthusiasm he is also a team player that would motivate staff to see projects and tasks through.

He is very bright, efficient and personable. Right away Abe proved himself to be a great asset to our business and I am confident he will devote himself to a position in your organization with great diligence.
