Justin,

Your online application was initiated as a general partnership with the state business license being for a general partnership, I actually did not notice the limited partnership thing until I got to the document you submitted as Entity Document and noticed the Certificate of Limited Partnership.

If you want to proceed with the general partnership, there will not be a re-advertisement, or re-notification of the public notice, I would just have to amend my incomplete letter to reflect the corrections you will still need to make to the application (not related to the ownership structure).

Now, the one thing I would like to tell you is that if you proceed with the general partnership and later want to change it to the limited partnership, you will have to apply for a transfer of ownership which is essentially going through the same process of applying for a new license plus additional paperwork.

Please let me know what you want to do immediately, respectfully, because the 90-day deadline to get your application deemed complete by our office outlined in the Incomplete Letter sent you yesterday does not start over.

Thank you

Hello Jacqlene.

Quick question if I switch back to general partnership do I have to redo the advertisements? Or is that not a option? Thank you , Justin.

> Hello,

Your application has been reviewed, attached is correspondence regarding corrections, additional documents, and/or resubmittals that need to be addressed. Please send any documents/correspondence to marijuana.licensing@alaska.gov.

Please let me know if you need any of the documents I have for this application. I want to make sure you receive this email and incomplete letter attached first.

Thank you,
