Joan Wilson
Director, AMCO
550 W. 7th AVE, SUITE 1600
Anchorage, AK 99501

Dear Director Wilson,

I am responding to the Notice of Violation (case AM 24-0015) dated January 3, 2024 concerning our delinquency on paying state excise taxes. We do have a backlog of excise taxes due to the results of an audit that was completed in November Of 2023. We were remiss in filing accurate returns for several months during the years of 2020 to 2022. These errors were mostly clerical in nature by either in failing to include some transports or failing to do accurate arithmetic for other transports. These errors were in no way intentional or trying to get around taxes that we know that we owe the state. Some of the tax liability that the Department of Revenue (DOR) has listed is due to interest and penalties that the DOR applied for these time periods. We are scheduled for a hearing on January 17th, 2024 to resolve that issue one way or another. Nevertheless, I have applied for a payment plan with the DOR to cover these past taxes determined from the audit. We are, at this writing, up to date on the rest of our tax liability for all other tax periods.

I have been paying marijuana excise taxes to the state since 2016 and to this date I have paid over $1,300,000 in taxes during 86 tax periods. I have rarely been late on my taxes and, if I was, the tardiness has always been taken care of in a matter of weeks. I realize that this audit is an exception to that, but once my appeals have been heard on January 17th, I will honor that ruling.

Thanks for your understanding,

Amco Enforcement/ Steven Johnson:

I am responding to the Notice of Violation issued on January 30,2024 for delinquent taxes. Unfortunately, there have been a few problems in my grow that drastically effected my yield, it will be at least 3 to 4 weeks before I will have another crop. I have no other resources presently to offer to the State. The price of marijuana has only steady decreased since 2020, yet the price of everything else has continued to increase. The State issuing an unlimited number of licenses has created a market that is flooded with product. I have worked 7 days week for the last 6 years, haven't left my grow for more than 2 days in the amount of time. I am and have been totally committed to make this a successful business. There is a new store opening soon in Anchorage, Southside Growers CO-OP, AK Best Buds has fortunately, been asked to participate in the CO-OP, the store has a great location and a solid business plan, offering fair prices. I am anticipating that my sales should increase considerably. I hope that your office recognizes how difficult the industry is at the present time.

Sincerely,
Ronald W. Hand

In response to our delinquent taxes referenced in our NOV, we are not contesting this violation. As for remedial measures, we are aiming to reorganize our cash assets to be able to pay this now late tax amount as well as future upcoming months as they are due. We are in a dispute with the AK state DOR about an exemption they denied us for state C Corp income taxes in 2019-2021 in which we have had to temporarily divert resources to make sure we can pay this bill if these taxes are indeed owed at the time this case is resolved.

Thanks,
