“Written statement on regards of the legal representatives”

Since my dad passed away my sister Libery Worthen has appointed MIchelle Westlake, Joe E, and myself to be legal representatives of Frozen North Farms, LLC.

Shortly after my dad's passing on may 6, 2021 Joe E, had little to no interest in wanting to be involved in the farm. From that time forward he as a representative is invalid or irrelevant.

Michelle Westlake handled all finances for Frozen North farms, LLC from dad's passing till She removed herself from LLC Dec 31st, 2021 without notice, & January 12, 2022. She gave her 10% back to Carole Ann Mcdowell. Therefore she now has no interest in the farm, from that point she as representative of the farm is invalid or irrelevant.

Carole Ann McDowell, as a legal representative, is the only one who has controlling interest in Frozen North farms, LLC as she is now 100%. As of january 12, 2022.

I, Liberty Worthen appoint Carole Ann Mcdowell to be my legal representative and oversee all operations for Frozen North Farms. Carole Ann Mcdowell will receive 80% ownership and controlling interest of Frozen North Farms, until the day I turn 21 years of age, at which point, Carole Ann Mcdowell will relinquish half (40%) back to Liberty Rose Lynn Worthen.

I authorize Michelle Westlake and Joseph Eickholt to be representatives of Frozen North Farms.

Michelle Westlake shall retain 10% ownership of Frozen North Farms.

Joseph Eickholt Shall retain 10% ownership of Frozen North Farms.

I, Liberty Rose Lynn Worthen, understand that by signing this contract, I am relinquishing all authority over Frozen North Farms and cannot receive financial gains from the business until I turn 21 years of age.
