To: Alaska Marijuana Control Board - For Consideration of renewal application for Rock Hard Nugz AK

Re: Rock Hard Nugz AK, 08/26/2021 NOV for Tax Delinquency

AMCO Board Members,

I am writing this letter of explanation regarding my August 26th, 2021 NOV for delinquency of payment of $737.23 in monthly excise taxes for the month of June 2021 that were due to be paid by July 31st 2021. My $776.98 payment for these delinquent taxes including interest and penalty was made on August 26th, 2021, the same day as the NOV was issued to me.

I ask the board for its understanding of this one-time late payment of my monthly excise taxes due to the fact myself and my family were all suffering from the effects of COVID19 and I simply could not focus on filing and paying my very small tax bill for the month.

At the time these taxes were due, I believe I must have decided the medical needs of my family were more important to address at that time than to pay a less than $750 tax bill and 5% penalty and interest. I honestly did not realize I had not filed my monthly excise tax return and then filed it immediately after realizing this on August 3rd.

I was not thinking about the deviation from compliance expected by the AMCO Board when I was making these decisions to triage my time and energy focusing on getting myself and my family healthy again after acquiring and suffering from it for months.

If you review my past history of monthly excise tax payments you will quickly see strong evidence to support that I, generally speaking, have always filed my monthly excise return and have always paid my monthly excise taxes owed on-time and in-full.

I expect not to have any similar incidence of non-compliance for failure to file and pay my taxes in a timely manner. I would appreciate your consideration of these facts in your decision whether to approve the renewal application for my Limited Marijuana Cultivation License #15223.

Best Regards,

Robert W. Gustafson
