Regarding the Violation of 3AAC 306.715
Case # AM241746
ORIGINAL Response on August 16, 2024

I am indeed at fault for not getting the paperwork turned in. The start of the long wait was I didn't receive the Police Report until sometime in May 2024. I thought I had to have it to turn in my report to the AMCO. One of the reasons our insurance didn't pay was also that I had no police report to give them either.
The security cameras were all working great, I have much video of the man who broke in and we also figured out who he was. The alarm either glitched or wasn't turned on. We had it set to call the police and to call me but nothing. We have installed a new alarm system, by SimpliSafe, since this took place, and I have also purchased an upgrade to the dvr / nvr for our security cameras that were installed last weekend.

I will go back over all the rules and regulations so as not to have any further issues like this one.

Sincerely,

Susan Burrell
