Dear Ms Franklin,

I am writing to you regarding the employment of a 15 year old minor. I understand that I am to receive an e-mail and certified letter about violation, but have not received either. In the meantime, I wanted to write and explain my error. My husband and I were approached by this young man stating that he wanted to work in the kitchen and learn to be a cook. I reviewed the work permit and it seemed to me that as long as his parents gave permission, it would be allowed. I sent in the permit within seven days of his starting and got denied due to the regulation stated clearly on my RDP that I obviously had not reviewed.

Upon receipt of the denial, I immediately told the young man that he could not work, intern, or volunteer here.

I absolutely understand the regulation now and will always comply. I apologize that I did not even consider this to be a question of the alcohol license since he was to work in the kitchen and would be no where near alcohol. Please accept my sincere apology. I should have researched the situation more, as we have never had anyone under 16 even apply. My husband and I are determined to run Grape Tap ethically and with the utmost integrity.

Thank you,

Kristin Cook

To whom it may concern;

I received our reprimand for expanding our outdoor seating Saturday, September 17th during our "Bear Naked BBQ" event. Let me assure you first and foremost that there was zero malicious intent nor nefarious plans in the works. We were not intending to defraud anyone or break any laws. This mistake was made purely out of inexperience and poor prior planning. We take full responsibility for our actions and are willing to pay any monetary consequences that may occur. We simply did not realize the number of people who would be showing up and made an executive decision on the day in question to elongate our predetermined outdoor area. We did not widen it and we placed signs stating "No beer beyond this point" along the perimeter. We did the best we could in light of it being a Saturday and no opportunity to contact the appropriate officials in order to get the necessary approval.

Since then we have dialed back the barriers to our original footprint and keeping it that way unless we are approved for anything larger. We understand the problem and have worked to rectify the situation. There should no longer be a concern in the future and we have taken care of it. That being said, attached you will find a new plan we would like to formally submit for future use or events. You will see we extended the footprint in order to include more standing room outside. While we do not foresee us needing such an extension currently, we do not want to be caught in the same situation as before. Please let me know if you need anything else from us and, as usual, we will provide it immediately. Thank you in advance.

Dear Cynthia Franklin,

By way of introduction, my name is Dawn M Harris. I am the General Manager of the Great Alaskan Bush Company. This is my 28th year with the company.

Please accept my sincerest apologies for not paying attention to the directions while obtaining the catering permit for our charity car wash events dated June 10th and June 17th. This year was the first year I chased the permits down myself. I was not aware that I needed to take the permit I received from APD to the ABC. I did get it signed by an APD representative but failed to take it to ABC from lack of knowing that step. This is my own fault and I take sole responsibility for not reading the permit form in its entirety. In past events, the owner, office manager or a GABC representative filed the permit request for me. This year the owners were out of state, the office manager retired and the representatives that usually filed these are no longer with the company. I assure you this will not happen in future requests for a catering permit. I am well aware of the proper procedures now.

My servers (1 bartender at each event) have valid IDs and TAPs card on files. No one was over served and both events were without incident. The area of service was roped off and IDs were checked before being served. No one under 21 was allowed in the service area.

Again, I apologize for my ignorance in this situation. I would never intentionally break laws and/or ignore regulations and procedures. Please inform me on the next step in rectifying this violation.

Thank you for your time

Sincerely,

This is response to a violation that occurred on 9-22-2016. My name is Dong Kang licensee at In and out liquor store my wife and I are only people working at the store and unfortunately my wife Sun Yoon's TAP card was expired as noted on the notice of violation. Sun told me that she misunderstood the inspector when he was explaining about not serving right away she thought she had time to get her TAP card until the next available class. When I was contacted by her I called CHARR and found out you could test out within 6 months of the expiration date. I personally took her on the date of violation 9-22-2016 and she was able to test out and get her server certification and the copy of it was e-mail to investigator Hamilton. Sorry about letting TAP card expire I have noted both my wife and my TAP card next expiration date on my calendar and I assure you this will not happen again. We have not had any violation or citation in the past 11 years according to investigator Hamilton and would do our best to keep it that way. Again apologies to the board and the community. Thank you

Sincerely,
Dong Kang

Hello Joe

In response to Jeannette Garvis' employment, she is a good friend that has rented our RV during the summer months of 2014 & this year & only fills in for me when I am in a pinch. Her & her boyfriend spend the summers, when they are here traveling Alaska & use Copper Center as their base.

Tom & I had made a quick run up to Fairbanks to see our grandchildren because Jeannette is the only person I trust to watch our business when I am gone & she was getting ready to go back to Canada at the end of the month and it was my last chance for a break. I knew she had a Canadian tams card & didn't think anything of it since it was just an occasional thing.

See attached documents. If you need anything else please let me know.

Subject: Notice of Violation for Puddle Jumper Saloon!

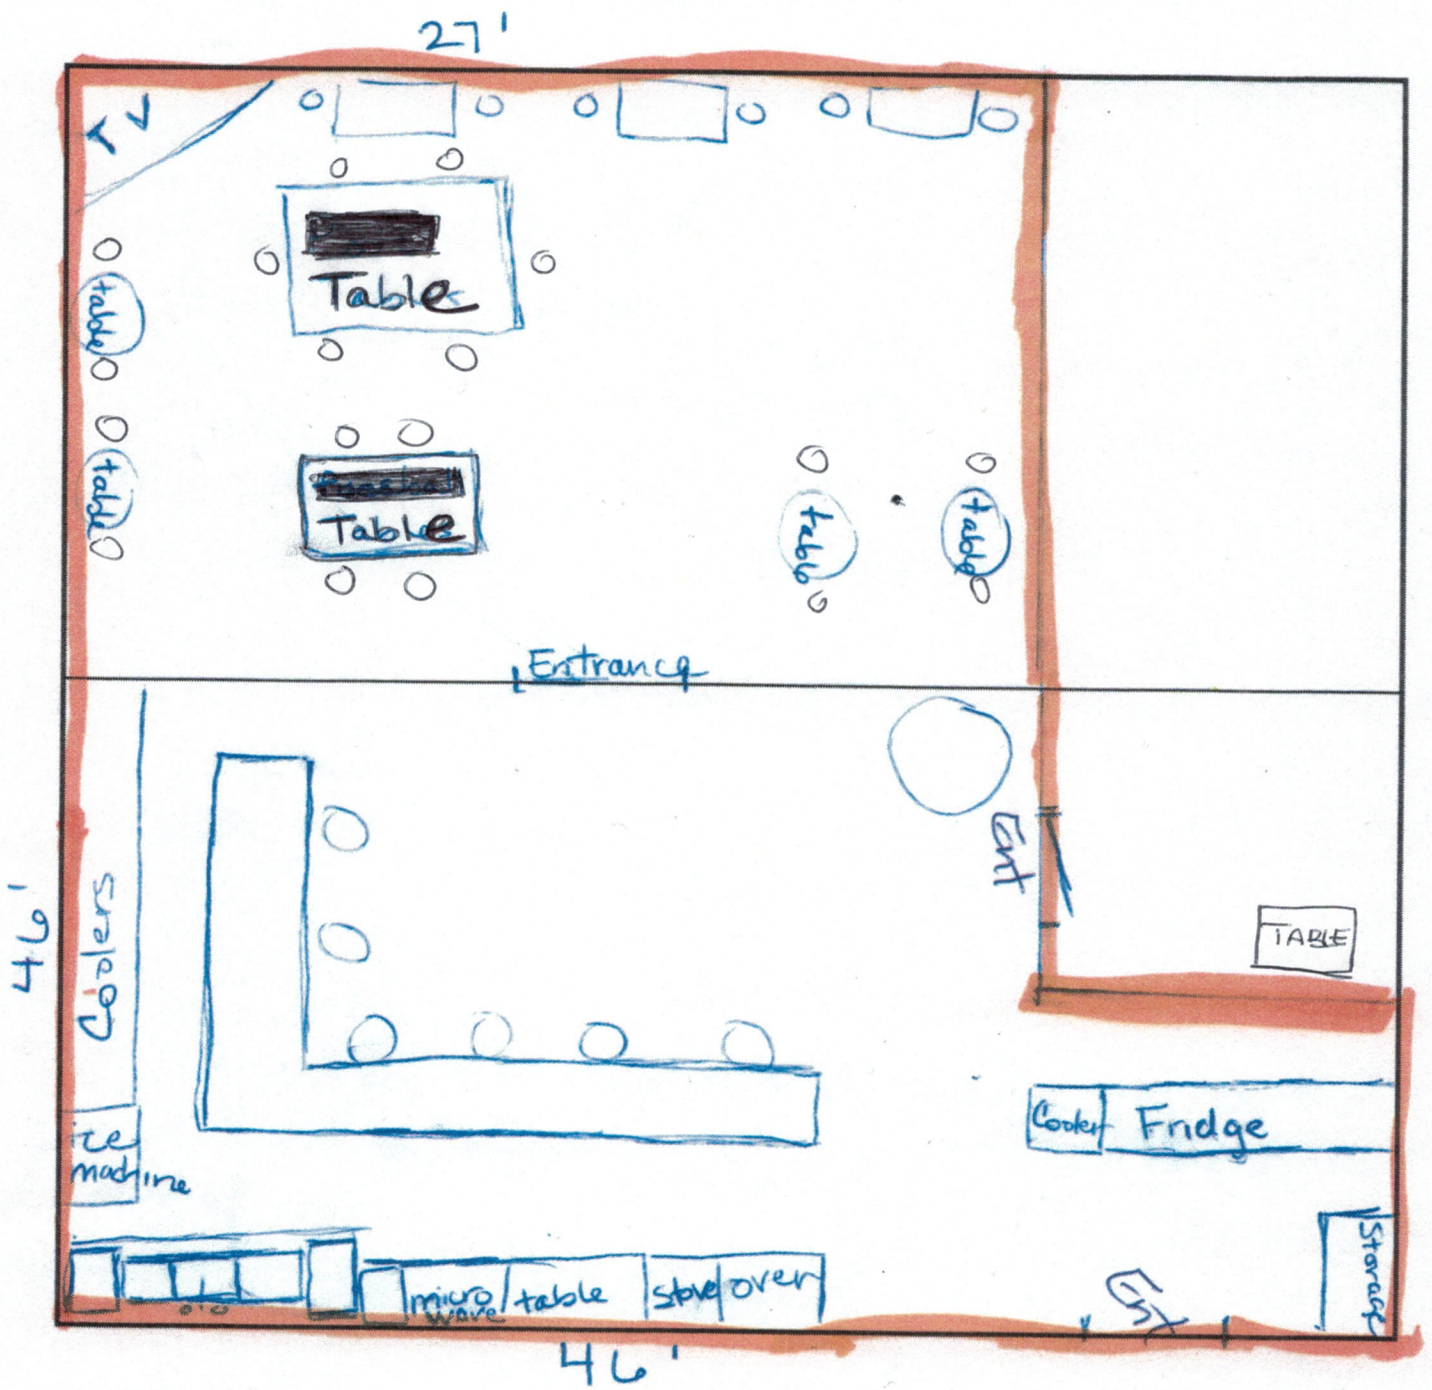

Cynthia,

After having a very informative conversation with officer Hamilton I will be correcting the following error noted in my violation. In the existing area that is covered under my permit there are two tables. One is a foosball table and the other a pool table. They do not belong to me and I am not able to get a hold of the owner "Hank Baron" he is with a vending company in Anchorage, however, I have currently asked my maintenance person to build me ply wood covers to cloak the tables. This will dis-allow anyone to play on the tables but rather use them as tables. Please note that at any point I never knew I was breaking rules and regulations of AMCO. I apologize for the mix up. I am attaching a new diagram showing the covered tables. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Karen Ables

Receipt:	Violation Observed By: F.R. Hamilton
Filed By: F.R. Hamilton	Title: Investigator III

Dear Ms. Franklin,

Hello, my name is Joanna Pitsilionis and I am the owner of the Red Diamond Liquor Barn in Soldotna, Alaska license number 2592. I have owned this business for approximately 8 years.

The first thing I regret to inform you is that I received the letter I am responding to on Friday the 29th of July at approximately 4 pm. The address to which it was mailed (p.o. box 2917) is no longer mine, but belongs to my father, he is 70 years old and in sick health, he accepted the certified letter and did not provide to me until Friday 29th. When I saw the post mark on the letter of June 16th I felt as though I would faint. Not only do we have a violation but we have failed to respond to it in a timely manner. I am correcting the mailing address with your office Monday morning.

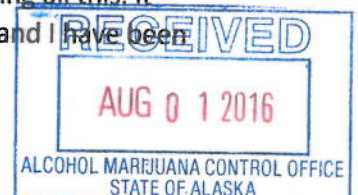

Nonetheless I now have the letter of violation in front of me and hope to explain the circumstances of what has occurred. I ask it be known I take full responsibility for my incompetence in this matter.

In August of 2015 I decided to leave Alaska with my young children and spend the winter overseas with my extended family in Europe. I am a single mother my children both under 5 years old. I felt extremely overwhelmed and needed a break. It was the first time I had left a manager behind to manage my business. Approximately at the end of March 2016 I was notified the manager suddenly and with no warning walked out deserting her position. I called my old partner Daniel Navarre to and asked him to step in until my return, he in fact did, at this point I discover the business had been neglected, all the "old" employees soon quite, the bills where unpaid, and under these extraordinary circumstances Daniel literally had three employees to cover a store open from 6 am to 1 am seven days a week. He immediately hired new employees and a new manager. Internally there were many problems. I returned to Alaska approximately April 20th and since then have been trying to reestablish this business.

Once I returned one of the first things I told the new manager was to make sure all employees had correct and current certifications, I recall telling her they had a to get this within a month of their hire. It has been a struggle to stabilize the staff, we went through many new hires, as well as untangle the mess the business was in. There are so many moving parts as we are a gas station c-store and liquor store. The certification classes here in Soldotna are once every two weeks, and although I knew and informed the new manager that we must be current we were in a frantic state of catch up, many unknowns, passwords missing, money mismanaged, no employees.... it was truly a struggle for everyone here. When Mr. Hamilton arrived we had two clerks who had been working here approximately two months, another who had worked for us in past but card was expired, and the manager who had also been with the store for approximately 3 months the "older" two employees had certification. In short, the "new" hire was without certification. I was not present, the manager tried to explain the circumstances to Mr. Hamilton. I was called at home and immediately reached out to instructor who conducts the classes. Of all days, there was a class within two hours of Mr. Hamilton arrival. I instructed all staff without current cards attend class and called into work the two clerks who did in fact have current certifications. Everyone passed the class.

Right now everyone who sells alcohol at this store has certification.

I have never had such an infraction in the past. I am truly embarrassed that I am explaining all this. It was incompetence and neglect on my part because I know how serious this is. I understand I have been entrusted by the state of Alaska to provide a safety whilst for the public whilst selling alcohol. I frequently have meetings and always speak of the significance of the responsibility we have selling alcohol.

I don't know what else to say. This truly was the first time this has happened since I have owned this business. I earn my living doing this, we went through a very difficult winter financially and I can't even imagine what situation I would be in if I was shut down. I truly feel shame explaining all this, and for something that could have been avoided.

There is also an issue of my DBA changed to Liquor Store on the violation, my liquor license is DBA Red Diamond Liquor Barn, I'm not sure what is being referred here?

Please understand this is the complete truth, I and everyone here attest to the above. I hope we can resolve this.

Also can you please update my address to P.O.Box 151 Kenai Alaska 99611, as the Box 2917 is my Fathers address of business.

VIOLATION:

On 09/12/2016, at 0147 hours, Officer Reeves and I were conducting security checks of the businesses in the downtown area when we saw several people in the business SALT (200 Seward Street) who were at the bar consuming alcohol out of wine glasses.

I knocked on the glass front door and a male known to me as George Strom came to the door. I asked him to open the door. He just stood there and refused for a moment. Then Strom opened the door. We started to walk through the entry way and Strom tried to physically block us from entering the business.

As I was contacting the people at the bar, Strom asked us if we had a warrant. I told him we were conducting a bar check and did not need one. I have had numerous contacts with Strom in the past. Sometimes he has been very hostile and other times he has been fine. Tonight he was very agitated with us being inside the bar. Strom paced around as we talked to the other people. They all said they were employees of the business. They were given a verbal warning about consuming alcohol after business hours.

ACTION TAKEN

Please forward this report to the ABC Board for their review of Strom's interfering with an ABC violation investigation.

Dear Ms. Franklin,

Today I received notice of a violation at SALT restaurant located at 200 Seward St., Juneau, AK 99801. License #644 on 9/12/16.

I apologize that the Manager & I did not even know about this incident until I received this letter. I am VERY disappointed that our staff was at our restaurant after hours. We have a strict policy on that.

The employee in question of blocking police entry, George Strom, has been terminated. The other 2 long standing, otherwise excellent employees have been suspended until further review. It was the 4th employees last day so they were sitting around talking and lost track of time. They were not intoxicated and left immediately after the police reminded them of the time. Mr. Stroms actions were uncalled for.

Further measures taken were the locks being changed and we had an employee meeting to stress the importance of following our policies.

As you know we run a pretty tight ship and this kind of behavior is unacceptable. I am disappointed that the officer didn't call us as we have a pretty good rapport with JPD and they usually call us if anything looks suspicious.

We have never had any issues with our licenses at our establishments and would appreciate leniency of this first violation.

Sincerely,
