Dear Mr. McCasland,

I have received your request that I issue a temporary liquor license for "Deckhand Daves" right away. Although I appreciate the arguments brought forward by you and Ms. O'Neal, the controlling statutes are the basis for my extremely limited authority to issue temporary licenses before any application has been received and considered by the Alcoholic Beverage Control Board.

The license for which you have applied, a restaurant/eating place license issued without regard to population limits for purposes of the convenience of the public, is codified in AS 04.11.400(g). That section provides that "The board may approve the issuance . . . of the license . . . if the board finds that the issuance . . . of the license is necessary for the public convenience."

Only the board can issue your license after considering your application and making a finding on the record that the issuance of the license is necessary for the public convenience. I cannot and will not issue a temporary license because I am not authorized by law to make that finding on behalf of the board.

Your application will be placed on the agenda for the next meeting of the ABC Board, July 20, in Fairbanks. Please plan to attend the meeting (telephone is fine) so that you are available for any questions from the board. The concept of issuing a license to a food truck that has leased a parking space may be another issue the board will want to discuss. The agenda will be on our website approximately one week before the meeting.

Thank you for your patience as we make sure your application is reviewed in full accordance with controlling statute.

Please consider David McCasland's request for an early determination of his application for a beer and wine license for Alaska Sustainable Seafoods, LLC, dba Deckhand Dave's.

You may not know, but the Juneau Economic Development Council provided startup financing for Tracy's King Crab Shack in the exact same location that Deckhand Dave's is currently occupying. That business struggled until it obtained a liquor license that allowed it to serve beer and wine with its food. Afterwards, growth was phenomenal, providing recurring profits that supported expansion and diversification and over 100 seasonal and year round jobs in Juneau today. JEDC also financed David McCasland's business as part of our economic development work and we have high hopes for his success.

Two things are true: beer and tacos go together and our tourist season is short. To help this business prosper, please grant beer and wine license before your next meeting in July.

Regards, Margaret

Re: CBJ Assembly Action on Liquor Licenses

Dear Sarah:

At its meeting on Monday, May 24, 2016 the City and Borough of Juneau Assembly took the following actions:

1) The Assembly waived its right to protest the location transfer of Restaurant Eating Place Liquor License #1690 Bullwinkle's, Inc. d/b/a Bullwinkle's Pizza, Transfer to 9108 Mendenhall Mall Road. The Assembly also approved the new Restaurant-Designation Permit for this license and a signed copy is attached.

[Clerk's Note: According to our CBJ cartographer Quinn Tracy, the address from which this license was transferring, 2687 Mendenhall Loop Mall Road does not actually exist. There is no such road name but rather this appears to have been the combination of two road names: Mendenhall Mall Road and the Mendenhall Loop Road. If you wish to correct your records, the actual physical location of the previous premises is actually 9105 Mendenhall Mall Road #10, Juneau, AK.]

2) The Assembly approved the Restaurant Eating Place – Public Convenience License #5482 for Alaska Sustainable Seafoods, LLC d/b/a Deckhand Dave's located at 356 S. Franklin Street. The Assembly also approved the Restaurant Designation Permit for this license and a signed copy is attached.

Thank you for the opportunity to comment. If you have any questions, please send an e-mail or call the Municipal Clerk's Office at 907-586-5278.

Good Morning Jane, Maxine & Sarah,

Jessica at DEC has advised me she sent approval to your offices for Aramark dab Denali River Cabins. Please confirm receipt of same?

Could we please request the temporary license be issued? I know they will be scheduled on the agenda for approval next week, and a final license will be issued then. However, our client has been anxious to get the license so if we can get temporary today or tomorrow that would be brilliant.

Thank you and have a great day
Amanda
