American Cruise Lines, Inc. (ACL) holds seasonal common carrier liquor license 5684 to serve alcoholic beverages for consumption aboard its cruise ship American Constellation.

We are writing to inform you of the following changes that have taken place in the corporation's ownership:

1. Mr. Charles A. Robertson, previously reported as the owner of 35% of the Corporation's stock, has died and is no longer an owner.
2. Mr. Robert L. James, previously reported as the owner of 12% of the Corporation's stock, sold all of his stock back to the Corporation and is no longer an owner.
3. Carol A. Robertson, previously reported as the owner of 27% of the Corporation's stock, is now the owner of 73% of the Corporation's stock, all in her role as the trustee for certain trusts created for the Robertson family.

We are aware that these changes should have been reported to you already. The past year has been extraordinary and these transactions are complex. This is not an excuse for failure to report, but merely an explanation.

We would like to request your consent to these transfers – or an extension of time (90 days) to provide any additional details or forms that you might require.

If you have any questions or need additional information please contact me at (203) 453-6800 or renner@americancruiselines.com.

Sincerely,

Susan K. Renner

Treasurer
