Alcohol Server Education Course

Form AB-10: New Education Course Provider Application

Describe the qualifications of and training provided to course instructors:

Qualifications for teaching an R-serving alcohol server education course include at least 1 year experience in the bar and restaurant industry and / or responsible alcohol service training.

Should a prospective instructor not have this type of experience in the bar and restaurant industry and responsible alcohol service training, R-serving would require this instructor, before teaching any classes, to complete a R-serving instructor training program. This training program will cover the importance of responsible alcohol service and R-serving's high standards of honesty and performance. In addition it will teach the instructor the components of the training required by Alaska and techniques to effectively train students in responsible alcohol service.
