Workers' Compensation Insurance Exemption

Doing Business As (DBA):
Owner Name:
You may be considered exempt and not be required to obtain workers' compensation insurance if your home inspectors license falls under one of the qualifying categories listed below: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Sole Proprietorship Only the registered owner is exempt from workers' compensation insurance; employees must be insured. <input type="checkbox"/> Partnership Only the registered partners are exempt from workers' compensation insurance; employees must be insured. <input type="checkbox"/> Limited Liability Company (LLC) Only the limited liability members are exempt from workers' compensation insurance; employees must be insured. <input type="checkbox"/> Corporation Only officers (president; vice-president; secretary; treasurer) who have an Executive Officer Waiver (EOW) issued by the Alaska Workers' Compensation Board are exempt from workers' compensation; all other directors and employees must be insured. Attach your Executive Officer Waiver. Your application is incomplete and will not be processed without an EOW.
I am aware that, based on the type of business checked above, I am exempting myself, my partner(s), and all members of our LLC from workers' compensation insurance. I understand that should an injury occur on a jobsite, I/we will not be eligible to seek benefits under the Alaska Workers' Compensation Act. I declare that if there is a change to my exemption status, I will provide proof of workers' compensation insurance to the Division to remain in compliance with AS 23.30.
