Business Alert: Deceptive Solicitation Issued by “Alaska Council for Corporations”

January 22, 2018 JUNEAU – The Division of Corporations, Business and Professional Licensing advises Alaska businesses they are not required to do business with, share information, or submit any payment to the business entity representing itself as “Alaska Council for Corporations.”

The Division of Corporations, Business and Professional Licensing has received reports that an entity identifying itself as Alaska Council for Corporations is mailing solicitations titled “2018 Annual Solicitation Form” to Alaska businesses. The solicitation quotes, out of context, portions of Alaska Statutes in an effort to obtain money and information from Alaska businesses. Although the solicitation contains a statement that Alaska Council for Corporations is not a government agency and does not provide services on behalf of any government agency, businesses may misinterpret the official-looking document.

Any official correspondence, statement, or request from the Division of Corporations, Business and Professional Licensing will clearly indicate State of Alaska origin by displaying the official state seal and Governor Bill Walker’s name in the document header. Businesses are encouraged to be diligent and familiarize themselves with statutory requirements. For more information, visit the division’s website at corporations.alaska.gov and read The Entity’s Responsibilities document (filed under General Information) and review the Scams and Solicitations webpage.

If you believe you have been the victim of an unfair or deceptive act, or if you want to report a practice that you think is unfair or deceptive, please contact the Alaska Department of Law Consumer Protection Unit at (907) 269-5200, or toll free outside of Anchorage at 1 (888) 576-2529. You can download a standard complaint form on the unit’s website at www.law.alaska.gov/department/civil/consumer/cp_complaint.html.
