Non-Resident Adjuster Reciprocity Affidavit

This affidavit acknowledges that you are aware of the differences between state definitions of lines of authority.

The license you carry in Alaska is restricted to the authority you carry in your home state, and this affidavit confirms you are aware that the Alaska license you carry restricts you to the authority of your home state license.

The definitions to Alaska lines of authority can be found under AS 21.12.040-090 and AS 21.277.115 and are available on our website.

Your license in the State of Alaska is reciprocal and does not cover authority not awarded in your domicile state.

Resident licensure is the basis of your reciprocal license in our state. We will not issue you more authority than what has been granted to you by your home state.

Alaska statutes provides numerous actions that can be taken to address unlicensed activity. This notice and affidavit are considered substantial guidance and if action is required to be taken by our office, the actions of a licensee may be considered willful and intentional.

Penalties for willful and intentional violations of our laws are substantial. If it is later determined that you have been transacting Alaska insurance business using authority you do not possess in your home state, you expose your license to penalties as defined under AS 21.27.440.
