STATE OF ALASKA
DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE, COMMUNITY, AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT
DIVISION OF BANKING AND SECURITIES

In the matter of: Rodrigo Ballon
NMLS #272011

ORDER NO: 14-556-C
ORDER IMPOSING A CIVIL PENALTY AND CONSENT TO ORDER

Respondent.

The Department of Commerce, Community, and Economic Development, Division of Banking and Securities ("Department") has examined the origination of one residential mortgage loan associated with Rodrigo Ballon ("Respondent") and determined certain provisions of AS 06.60 et seq. (the Alaska Secure and Fair Enforcement for Mortgage Licensing Act of 2010 – the "Alaska SAFE Act") were violated.

Respondent agrees that the Department has jurisdiction over him and this matter pursuant to the Alaska SAFE Act.

Respondent wishes to resolve and settle this matter with the Department. As evidenced by the authorized signature on this Order, Respondent consents to the entry of this Order imposing a civil penalty in order to resolve and settle this matter. Respondent waives his right to a hearing under AS 44.62 et seq. (the Alaska Administrative Procedure Act) and the Alaska SAFE Act.

I. FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Respondent was employed as a mortgage loan originator with CMG Mortgage, Inc. d/b/a CMG Financial (CMG) in San Diego, California from March 2012 to November 2015.
CMG compensated Respondent for originating mortgage loans in California. CMG holds Alaska Mortgage Broker/Lender License number 1820, which was issued on May 13, 2011.

2. Respondent has never held a license to originate mortgage loans in Alaska.

3. On January 31, 2014, CMG issued a document titled “Notification of Approval” (Notification) to California resident J.B. for a 30-year Department of Veterans’ Affairs (VA) loan that stated: “CMG...has pre-approved a home loan application for J.B...” and the property address was “TBD” (to be determined). The letter stated: “Should you or your agent need any additional approval documentation, please feel free to email or call with your request.” The Notification reflected Respondent’s name as “Rodrigo Ballon | Branch Manager” and included the Respondent’s contact information. Per Respondent, the Notification was issued based on income and credit information previously provided to CMG by J.B. in 2013 and which J.B. indicated had not changed. On the same day, J.B. completed a Purchase and Sale Agreement (Agreement) for the purchase of a dwelling in Wasilla, Alaska. The Agreement stated: “J.B. agrees to make a good faith loan application with CMG Financial (Rodrigo Ballon)(Lender).”

4. On February 10, 2014, CMG staff pulled a credit report for J.B., ten days after the Notification was issued to J.B. Email correspondence with J.B. reflects that the credit score for J.B. was too low to qualify for the 30-year VA loan.

Also on February 10, 2014, the name and unique identifier of a CMG mortgage loan originator licensed in Alaska, S.E., was listed in the Loan Originator Name and Loan Originator Identifier sections of the 1003 on page 4. Respondent’s electronic signature was affixed to the 1003 on page 4 in the Loan Originator’s Signature section.

5. On February 12, 2014, J.B. signed the mortgage application (1003) electronically.

6. Email correspondence between J.B., J.B.’s wife, and CMG dated January 31, 2014 to February 13, 2014 shows the following:
a. Respondent or one of his team members is copied on all email correspondence.

b. S.E. was not copied on the email correspondence relating to this transaction.

c. Email correspondence references a phone conversation that J.B. and Respondent had during the period.

7. On February 13, 2014, an email confirmed the loan was cancelled because the borrower did not qualify.

II. CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. Taking a mortgage loan application for a dwelling located in Alaska with the expectation of compensation is work as a “mortgage loan originator” as that term is defined in AS 06.60.990(23) and requires a license pursuant to AS 06.60.012.

2. Respondent violated AS 06.60.012 by performing work as a mortgage loan originator without being licensed.

3. Respondent violated AS 06.60.340(22), which prohibits false or misleading statements in a mortgage prequalification letter, by stating in the Notification that J.B. qualified for a VA loan when, upon further verification, he did not qualify for the loan.

4. In connection with the violations of AS 06.60.012 and AS 06.60.340(22), Respondent is subject to a civil penalty under AS 06.60.420.

III. ORDER

Pursuant to the Alaska SAFE Act and on the basis of the Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Respondent’s consent to the entry of this Order, the Department ORDERS Respondent to:

1. Comply with the Alaska SAFE Act and associated regulations; and

2. Pay a civil penalty in the amount of two thousand dollars ($2,000).
This Order is a publicly disclosable document and is reportable to the Nationwide Mortgage Licensing System (NMLS).

IT IS SO ORDERED.
