

SUPPLEMENTAL NOTICE OF FILING PETITION FOR DETACHMENT BY THE CITY OF FAIRBANKS WITH LOCAL BOUNDARY COMMISSION

THIS IS A SUPPLEMENTAL NOTICE TO THE “NOTICE OF FILING PETITION FOR DETACHMENT BY THE CITY OF FAIRBANKS WITH LOCAL BOUNDARY COMMISSION (LBC)” ISSUED ON MAY 27, 2015. THIS SUPPLEMENTAL NOTICE EXTENDS THE PUBLIC COMMENT PERIOD UNTIL AUGUST 20, 2015.

The City of Fairbanks (Petitioner), a home rule city in the Fairbanks North Star Borough, has filed a detachment by local action petition with the LBC. The petitioner’s representative is John C. Brainerd, Deputy City Attorney. The territory proposed by the city for detachment consists of territory totaling approximately 0.076 square miles (48.5 acres). The detachment would decrease the area of the city from 33.85 to approximately 33.77 square miles. The territory is on the eastern edge of the city, and is south of the intersection of Old Richardson Highway and Badger Road. The territory is the site of a self-service storage facility and caretaker unit known as “Forbes Storage” and a drive-up restaurant known as “Spicy Thai.”

Standards governing detachment from cities are established in Alaska Statutes 29.06.040-060; and 3 AAC 110.257-265; and 3 AAC 110.900-990. Procedures governing city detachment by the local action method are set out in AS 29.06.040 and 3 AAC 110.400-700.

The legal description of the territory proposed for detachment can be found in the petition. The petition and related documents, including a map of the territory proposed for detachment, are available for public review at the following locations, days, and times:

1. City of Fairbanks Clerk’s Office, 800 Cushman St., Fairbanks, AK 99701

Questions concerning the proposed detachment may be directed to LBC staff (part of the Alaska Department of Commerce, Community, and Economic Development) using the contact information listed below. Any interested person may file written comments with the LBC regarding the detachment petition. The LBC has relaxed 3 AAC 110.700(d) so the public is not required to send an original if an electronic comment has already been filed. Additionally, a person with the capacity to sue may file a responsive brief supporting or opposing the petition with the LBC. Written comments and responsive briefs must be filed in accordance with 3 AAC 110.480. A person who files a responsive brief (as distinguished from a written comment) gains certain procedural rights and duties during the petition proceedings. Responsive briefs and written comments must be received by the LBC by 4:30 pm, August 20, 2015 in the office below:

Local Boundary Commission, 550 W. 7th Ave., Ste. 1640, Anchorage, AK 99501
