Economic Development

CERTIFICATE
of Amended Boundaries of the City of Allakaket

By the power and duty vested in me under the laws of the State of Alaska,<sup>1</sup> I, Chris Hladick, Commissioner of the Alaska Department of Commerce, Community, and Economic Development, hereby certify that the following is a true and accurate description of the boundaries of the City of Allakaket. The boundaries described below include approximately 174 acres of land detached from and 12.3 square miles of land concurrently annexed to the City of Allakaket effective March 16, 2015.<sup>2</sup>

The post-annexation and post-detachment boundaries of the City of Allakaket are described as follows:

Beginning at the NE Corner of Section 7, T20N, R23W, Fairbanks Meridian, Alaska, the true point of beginning;

thence west to the NW Corner of Section 10, T20N, R24W; thence south to a point where the section line common to Sections 21 and 22, T20N, R24W intersects the left bank of the Koyukuk River;

thence west and southwesterly along the left bank of the Koyukuk River to a point which intersects the section line common to Sections 28 and 29, T20N, R24W;

thence south to the SW corner of Section 28, T20N, R24W;

<sup>1</sup> 3 AAC 110.630(d) states "When the requirements in [3 AAC 110.630(a)] have been met, the department shall issue a certificate describing the effective change." In relevant part, 3 AAC 110.630(a) states "[A] final decision of the commission is effective when (1) notification of compliance with 42 U.S.C. 1973c (Voting Rights Act of 1965) is received from the United States Department of Justice. . . [and] (3) 45 days have passed since presentation of the commission's final decision on a legislative review petition was made to the legislature and the legislature has not disapproved the decision." Preclearance is no longer required per the U.S. Supreme Court's 2013 decision in Shelby County v. Holder.

<sup>2</sup> The Local Boundary Commission approved the detachment and concurrent annexation on November 6, 2014. The commission presented the petition to the Legislature on January 27, 2015. The Legislature did not disapprove the petition, and the commission's decision became effective on March 16, 2015.

thence east to the SE corner of Section 30, T20N, R23W;
thence north to the NE Corner of Section 7, T20N, R23W, the true point of beginning, containing 17.3 sq. miles, more or less.

Description based on USGS Quad Bettles (C-6), revised 1970.

The territory for detachment and annexation is located in the Fairbanks Recording District, Fourth Judicial District, State of Alaska.

Signed this 26th day of March, 2015.

Chris Hladick, Commissioner
Department of Commerce, Community, and Economic Development
