AS 45.50.010-.205

This application is only for a trademark that has been registered with this office and is available for renewal within 6 months before the trademark's expiration date.

A Trademark Renewal is a time for re-evaluation of a registered trademark. Please note that trademark registrations may potentially require amendments or may be cancelled if it is found that:

- The mark was improperly processed in the initial application;
- The mark has become generic (Example: "Trampoline" or "Escalator");
- The mark has been denied by the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office; or,
- The mark is cancelled for a reason provided under AS 45.50.140.

This trademark registration is valid only in the State of Alaska for a period of five (5) years. The Corporations Section does not check an application against other states' registrations, or registrations on file with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office. You are strongly advised to conduct a thorough search of your mark. If you require assistance, you are advised to seek the services of an attorney or other qualified professional specializing in the area of trademark law.
