12 AAC 19 is amended by adding a new section to read:

12 AAC 19.117. Emergency courtesy license. (a) In an urgent situation, the board will issue an emergency courtesy license to practice marital and family therapy to an applicant who has a license in good standing to practice marital and family therapy in another jurisdiction with licensing requirements at least equivalent to those of this state, and who meets the requirements of this section. The board may limit the scope of a license issued under this section, as appropriate to respond to the urgent situation.

(b) An applicant for an emergency courtesy license under this section must submit to the department a completed application on a form provided by the department. A complete application includes the applicable application and licensing fees established in 12 AAC 02.242 and verification of a current license in good standing to practice marital and family therapy in another state or other jurisdiction, and certification that the applicant is not under investigation in the state or other jurisdiction in which the applicant is licensed.

(c) An emergency courtesy license issued under this section is valid for the period specified by the board and may not exceed 120 consecutive days. An emergency courtesy license may be renewed for one additional period specified by the board, not to exceed 120 consecutive
