(c) An applicant for licensure under AS 08.88.171(a) or (b) shall complete 30 hours of education approved by the commission before the person may be licensed under either of those subsections.

(d) A person who is licensed under this chapter must complete 20 hours of continuing education approved by the commission before the person's license may be renewed. The commission may not establish limits that prevent a person from satisfying this continuing education requirement within a two-day period.

(e) Except for a course described in (f)(1) or (3) of this section, in order for an educational course to be recognized for credit under this section, AS 08.88.095, or 08.88.098, the course outline and the instructor of the course shall have been approved by the commission or the commission's designee before the course is conducted. A course outline or instructor is considered approved if the commission or the commission's designee does not disapprove the outline or instructor within 45 days after the date on which complete application was made for approval. Each approved contact hour of a submitted course outline constitutes one credit hour of education under (d) of this section, AS 08.88.095, or 08.88.098. The fee for continuing education course certification under AS 08.88.221 and for course certification under AS 08.88.221 to satisfy the educational requirements of AS 08.88.095 and 08.88.098 must be based on the hours approved for credit, not on the hours submitted.

(f) The commission shall establish by regulation the educational and continuing educational requirements for licenses issued by the commission. The regulations for continuing education requirements and for educational requirements under AS 08.88.095 and 08.88.098 must allow the following types of courses to qualify for the appropriate number of credit hours, as determined by the commission:

(1) courses that are developed by national organizations, as identified for the purpose of this paragraph in the commission's regulations, that are delivered by nationally certified instructors and that are required in order to earn professional designations from a national organization in specialized areas of licensed real estate practice; notwithstanding other provisions of this chapter, the commission may not charge a fee for these courses;

(2) technology courses directly related to real estate practice that are designed to enhance the skills and performance of a real estate licensee; and

(3) courses offered by an accredited college or university as part of a real estate curriculum that are available for at least one quarter-hour or one-half semester-hour of academic credit; the commission may not charge a fee for these courses.

(g) The commission shall establish core curricula for continuing education in the following areas: real estate sales, property management, community association management, and commercial sales. A licensee shall complete at least one of the four core curricula during each biennial licensing period as part of the licensee's continuing education.

Sec. 08.88.095. Educational requirements after initial license. (a) In addition to the continuing educational requirements of AS 08.88.091(d), within one year after the date that the commission issues an initial license under this chapter, the licensee shall complete 30 hours of education approved by the commission under AS 08.88.091.

(b) On the document representing an initial license, the commission shall include clear and prominent language stating that the license is subject to the licensee's completion of the educational requirements within one year after the date of the issuance of the license.

(c) Within 30 days after the end of the one-year period, the licensee shall submit, on a form provided by the commission, a certification that the licensee has completed the educational requirements.

(d) After a licensee submits the completed form under (c) of this section and pays the required fee, the commission shall issue a new license document to the licensee that does not contain the language required by (b) of this section.

(e) If a licensee fails to complete the educational requirements within the one-year period or to provide the certification required by (c) of this section, the license automatically lapses 30 days after the end of the one-year period. However, the commission may reinstate the license under AS 08.88.241.

(f) Notwithstanding the other provisions of this section, an individual who is issued an initial license as a real estate broker is not required to satisfy the educational requirements for that initial license if, immediately before the issuance, the individual is licensed as an associate real estate broker under this chapter.

(g) In this section, "education requirements" means the educational requirements of (a) of this section.

Sec. 08.88.098. Educational requirements after suspension. (a) In addition to the continuing educational requirements of AS 08.88.091(d) and the educational requirements of AS 08.88.095(a), if the commission suspends a license under AS 08.01.075, the licensee shall complete the education required by the commission before the commission may reinstate the suspended license.

(b) After completing the educational requirements of (a) of this section, the licensee shall submit, on a form provided by the commission, a certification that the licensee has complete the educational requirements.

(c) The educational requirements of (a) of this section are in addition to any other conditions that the commission sets for reinstating a suspended license under this chapter.

Sec. 08.88.131. Applicability of the Administrative Procedure Act. AS 44.62 (Administrative Procedure Act) applies to regulations and proceedings under this chapter.

(g) An action to enforce an order under this section may be combined with an action for an injunction under AS 08.88.037.

Sec. 08.88.171. Eligibility for license. (a) A natural person qualifies for a real estate broker license if the person passes the brokers examination, applies for a license within six months after passing the examination, furnishes satisfactory proof of successful completion of the education requirements of AS 08.88.091, has had at least 36 months of active and continuous experience as a real estate licensee within the 60 months immediately preceding application for the broker license, is not under indictment for or seven years have elapsed since the person has completed a sentence imposed upon conviction of a felony or other crime that, in the judgment of the commission, affects the person's ability to practice as a real estate broker competently and safely or upon conviction of forgery, theft, extortion, conspiracy to defraud creditors, or fraud, and is an owner of a real estate business or employed as a real estate broker by a foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, limited partnership, or limited liability company. Unless the broker fails to satisfy the educational requirements of AS 08.88.095 or renew the license, or the broker's license is suspended or revoked, the broker's license continues in effect as long as the broker's license is active. If the broker stops being an owner of a real estate business or stops being employed as a real estate broker by a foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, limited partnership, or limited liability company, the broker's license is suspended from the time the broker stops until the broker satisfies the educational requirements of AS 08.88.098 and

(1) again becomes an owner of a real estate business or is again employed as a real estate broker by a foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, limited partnership, or limited liability company; or

(2) is employed by another broker as an associate broker, in which case the real estate broker license shall be returned to the commission by the broker, and the commission shall issue the broker an associate real estate broker license.

Unless the associate broker fails to satisfy the educational requirements of AS 08.88.095 or renew the license, or the associate broker's license is suspended or revoked, the associate broker's license continues in effect as long as the associate broker is employed by a licensed real estate broker as an associate broker. If the associate broker stops being employed by a licensed real estate broker, the associate broker's license is suspended from the time the associate broker stops until the associate broker satisfies the educational requirements of AS 08.88.098 and

- (1) again is employed by a real estate broker as an associate broker; or
- (2) becomes an owner of a real estate business or is employed as a real estate broker by a foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, limited partnership, or limited liability company, in which case the associate broker's license shall be returned to the commission by the associate broker, and the commission shall issue the licensee a broker's license.

(c) A natural person qualifies for a real estate salesperson license if the person passes the real estate salesperson examination, applies for the license within six months after passing the examination, submits satisfactory proof of successful completion of the education requirements of AS 08.88.091, is at least 19 years of age, furnishes satisfactory proof that errors and omissions insurance required under AS 08.88.172 has been obtained, is not under indictment for a felony or other crime that, in the judgment of the commission, affects the individual's ability to practice as a real estate salesperson competently and safely or under indictment for forgery, theft, extortion, conspiracy to defraud creditors, or fraud, or, if convicted of such an offense, seven years have elapsed since the person completed the sentence imposed upon conviction. Unless the salesperson fails to satisfy the educational requirements of AS 08.88.095 or renew the license, or the real estate salesperson's license is suspended or revoked, a real estate salesperson's license continues in effect.

(d) A real estate licensee shall promptly inform the commission of a change in business association that affects the status of the licensee's license under this section.

(e) Notwithstanding (a) - (d) of this section, a natural person qualifies for a limited license to practice community association management under (f) of this section if the person

- (1) applies by January 1, 1999;
- (2) pays the required fees;
- (3) demonstrates to the commission's satisfaction that the person has engaged in the practice of community association management for at least 24 months before January 1, 1999; and
- (4) meets other requirements that may be established by the commission in its regulations for issuance of a license under this subsection.

(f) A person who qualifies under (e) of this section shall be issued an associate broker license if, at the time of issuance, the person is employed by a broker. A person who qualifies under (e) of this section shall be issued a broker license if, at the time of issuance, the person is the owner of a community association management business or is employed as a community association manager by a foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, limited partnership, or limited liability company. After initial issuance of a license to a person under this subsection, the person is subject to the same requirements that exist for other brokers and associate brokers licensed under this chapter. However, notwithstanding other provisions of this chapter, under a license issued under this subsection, a person may practice only community association management and does not qualify as a broker or associate broker for purposes of AS 08.88.161 (1) - (4), (7), or (8) or 08.88.165(2). A person issued a limited license to practice community association management under this section may not use the terms "salesperson," "broker," or "associate broker" for any business purpose unless the person is also licensed appropriately under other provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 08.88.172. Errors and omissions insurance. (a) A person licensed as a real estate broker, associate real estate broker, or real estate salesperson shall, as a condition of licensing, carry and maintain errors and omissions insurance to cover activities for which licensing is required under AS 08.88.161.

(b) The department shall establish by regulation the terms and conditions of the errors and omissions insurance required by this section, including

- (1) coverage requirements;
- (2) limits of coverage;
- (3) the maximum amount of premium to be charged licensees under a master errors and omissions policy under (d) of this section; and
- (4) the method for adjusting these amounts based on the Consumer Price Index.

(c) A licensee may obtain the errors and omissions insurance required by (a) of this section by

(1) obtaining a master insurance policy that may be made available to licensees by the commission; or
(2) independently obtaining errors and omissions insurance that complies with the requirements established under (b) of this section.

(d) The commission may

(1) solicit bids for a master errors and omissions insurance policy for licensees that meets the minimum terms and conditions established under (b) of this section using a competitive sealed bid process under AS 36.30 (State Procurement Code); and

(2) charge a licensee a reasonable administration fee to recover costs incurred in connection with the solicitation made under (1) of this subsection.

(e) [Repealed, § 4 ch 39 SLA 2016.]

(f) A licensee seeking to obtain or renew a license shall certify to the commission that errors and omissions insurance has been obtained. A licensee who elects to independently obtain errors and omissions insurance shall provide a certificate of coverage with the application to obtain or renew a license.

Sec. 08.88.173. Fidelity bond for community association managers. (a) If the board of directors of a community association allows a broker to exercise control over community association fees or other community association funds, the broker must provide evidence to the commission that the broker is covered by a blanket fidelity insurance bond. The bond may be in the name of the broker with the association as an additional insured or in the name of the association with the broker as an additional insured. The bond must cover the maximum funds that will be within the control of the community association manager at any time while the bond is in force. The commission may grant an exemption from the bonding requirement of this subsection if the commission determines that the community association manager has equivalent comparable coverage or that coverage is unavailable. The commission may adopt regulations to implement this subsection, including regulations concerning the minimum coverage and terms of coverage that are required and proof of bond and the granting of exemptions.

(b) If a loss covered by the fidelity bond required under this section is also reimbursable from the real estate recovery fund, the owners' association that suffered the loss may not recover under the bond until the association has obtained a final judgment, final arbitration award, or settlement agreement and filed a claim for an award under AS 08.88.460.

Sec. 08.88.175. Limitations on community association managers. A licensee may not, within the practice of community association management, exercise control over the

(1) reserves or investment accounts of a community association;

(2) operating account of a community association unless

(A) allowed under a contract that has been approved by the association's board of directors; and

(B) duplicate financial statements concerning the account are sent by the institution holding the account to the licensee and the association's board of directors at separate addresses.

Sec. 08.88.181. Content and purpose of examination. (a) The real estate examinations may include questions on real estate business ethics and standards; arithmetic and accounting; elementary principles of land economics and appraisal; the general principles in state statutes relating to deeds, mortgages, real estate contracts, subdivisions, common interest communities, legal descriptions, building restrictions, real estate licensee relationships, agency law, brokerage, disclosure requirements, trust accounting requirements, and landlord and tenant law; property management ethics and standards; community association management operations, ethics, and standards; and the general provisions of this chapter and of the regulations of the commission.

(b) The real estate salesperson examination covers the same subjects as the real estate broker examination, but is less difficult.

(c) The only purpose of an examination under this chapter is to disqualify those whose lack of ability to participate in real estate transactions would create a serious risk of serious financial loss to members of the public.

Sec. 08.88.191. Administration of examination. (a) The commission shall offer written examinations at periodic intervals but at least once a year.

(b) If the commission authorizes the department to contract with a national testing service to prepare, administer, and grade examinations,

(1) the commission or its designee shall review the examination and approve its contents;

A real estate licensee may do real estate business only through a principal office or from a branch office registered by the broker by whom the licensee is employed. Failure of a real estate broker to maintain a place of business in the state or to inform the commission of its location and the names and addresses of all real estate licensees employed at each location by the broker is grounds for the suspension or revocation of the broker's license.

(b) Each licensee under this chapter is responsible for ensuring that the commission has current contact information for the licensee for two years after the lapse, expiration, surrender, suspension, or revocation of the license.

(c) In addition to the information provided under (a) of this section, a licensee shall provide the commission with a current mailing address and, if active, the address of the broker employing the licensee.

(d) The commission shall mail all notices pertaining to a license or recovery fund action taken under this chapter or a regulation adopted under this chapter to the current address or addresses of a licensee obtained under this section. Proof of notice provided under this subsection satisfies due process notice requirements.

Sec. 08.88.301. Change of location. Before a real estate broker changes the location of the broker's principal office or of a branch office, the broker shall notify the commission of the new address and any other office changes on a form provided by the commission and pay the applicable fees.

A person licensed as a real estate broker may own, operate, or be employed by multiple corporations, partnerships, or other business organizations engaging in activities for which a license is required under this chapter, provided that each business organization is registered with the commission, and that the principal offices of all of the business organizations share a single physical address.

Sec. 08.88.311. Branch offices. (a) A branch office shall be under the direct supervision of a real estate associate broker whose principal place of business is that office and who is licensed under this chapter. An associate broker may serve in the capacity of direct supervisor at only one office.

(b) The license certificate of each licensee working in the broker's principal office shall be displayed in that office.

(c) The license certificate of the designated associate broker who is in charge of a branch office and the certificate of each licensee working in a branch office shall be displayed in the branch office indicated as the office of the licensees' employment in the registration required under AS 08.88.291.

(d) Certificates displayed under this section must be displayed where they are available for public clients and customers to verify the current active status of licensees working in the office.

Sec. 08.88.331. Making of transactions. An active real estate salesperson or associate real estate broker may perform activities for which a real estate license is required only through the real estate broker who employs or contracts with the licensee. All money or other proceeds collected in trust and related to a real estate transaction shall immediately be turned over to the broker or the broker's authorized representative.

Sec. 08.88.341. Listings or management contracts. All real estate listings or management contracts must be in writing and must be signed by the broker or associated licensee of the broker and by the client or an authorized representative of the client for whose benefit the real estate licensee will act. All real estate exclusive listings or management contracts must have a definite expiration date that may be renewed or extended only by a written agreement signed by the client or the client's authorized representative.

Sec. 08.88.351. Accounts; records of transactions. (a) A real estate broker shall

(1) keep a complete record, for three years, of all real estate transactions in which the broker or employed licensees of the broker engaged;

(2) provide upon request to any principal in a transaction an accounting for all money or other property collected or held in the course of each transaction;

(3) keep a separate trust account in a bank into which the broker shall deposit all earnest money deposits, purchase money, security deposits, contingency funds, collected rental money, rental receipts, or other money collected in trust until it is appropriate for the broker to distribute the money to the proper persons;

(4) if authorized by the board of directors of a community association to collect, control, or disburse association funds, keep a separate account in a financial institution for the funds;

(5) make available to the commission, on request, account records and all other documents that the commission may require in order to conduct an investigation or to audit an account required under this section;

(b) A real estate licensee

(1) shall keep, for a minimum of three years, a complete record of all real estate transactions in which the licensee was a principal;

(2) who maintains records concerning management or sale of the licensee's own properties or the licensee's client properties separate from the broker's file, shall retain those records for a minimum of three years;

(3) shall make available to the commission, on request, records and other documents that the commission may require to conduct an investigation;

(5) may not commingle funds of a community association with funds of another community association or with the licensee's funds.

(c) For the purposes of this section, the three-year requirement for records maintenance begins at the initiation of a transaction and continues, as applicable, until three years after the date

(1) a listing agreement ends;

(2) a sales transaction closes or otherwise ends;

(3) a management contract ends; or

(4) another contractual or fiduciary obligation ends.

Sec. 08.88.361. When commission is earned. A commission is earned when the real estate broker fulfills the terms of a written personal services contract.

Sec. 08.88.381. Signs. A real estate broker shall maintain a sign at each of the broker's registered real estate offices prominently showing the name of the real estate business as registered with the commission. The required size, content, and location of signs under this section may be determined by the commission under regulations. The regulations must allow signs in offices located on premises with more restrictive sign requirements than would otherwise be applicable under the commission's regulations to be considered to be in compliance with the regulations if the signs meet the requirements of the premises and the licensee submits a copy of the sign requirements of the premises to the commission.

Sec. 08.88.391. Conflict of interest. (a) A real estate licensee who has a conflict of interest relating to a real estate transaction shall disclose that conflict of interest to the persons adversely affected by the conflict or their real estate licensees and confirm the conflict of interest in writing to the persons adversely affected by the conflict or their real estate licensees involved in the transaction as soon as possible after the conflict is identified. The licensee must also verbally advise the person of the conflict, and begin any written statement of the conflict of interest with these words, underlined and written in bold: "Disclosure of Conflict of Interest."

(b) The failure of a licensee to disclose a conflict of interest as required under this section does not give rise to a cause of action by a private person. However, the commission may, under AS 08.88.071, impose a disciplinary sanction for violation of this section.

(c) In this section, "conflict of interest" is when a licensee

(1) has a present ownership or leasehold interest in the property that is the subject of a transaction;

(2) is whole or part owner of a business interest in the property being marketed or considered for purchase or lease;

(3) represents a relative, as defined in AS 08.88.900(a)(19), or a person with whom the licensee has a financial relationship if the relative or person has a present financial interest in the property being marketed or considered for purchase or lease;

(4) receives compensation from someone other than a party to the contract or another party having a financial interest in the transaction; or

(5) receives compensation for community association management while simultaneously engaged as a property manager for a unit within the community association.

Sec. 08.88.396. Licensee relationships, disclosures, and activity before January 1, 2005. (a) A person licensed under this chapter shall, when acting as a real estate licensee for a prospective seller or lessor of real estate,

(1) disclose in writing the licensee's agency relationship with the seller or lessor to each prospective buyer or lessee at the time that the licensee begins to provide specific assistance to locate or acquire real estate for the buyer or lessee, and obtain from each prospective buyer or lessee a signed acknowledgment that the buyer or lessee is aware of the agency relationship between the licensee and the seller or lessor; and

(2) include in the purchase agreement a statement of the agency relationship between the licensee and the seller or lessor.

(b) A person licensed under this chapter shall, when acting as a real estate licensee for a prospective buyer or lessee of real estate,

(2) include in the purchase agreement a statement of the agency relationship between the licensee and the buyer or lessee;

(3) if the prospective seller or lessor has an unexpired exclusive listing contract for a property, present all offers to purchase that property through the seller's or lessor's real estate licensee; and

(4) disclose in writing to all parties to a transaction when the licensee's compensation as real estate licensee for the buyer or lessee is to be paid by anyone other than the buyer or lessee being represented by the licensee.

(c) A person licensed under this chapter may act as a real estate licensee for both a prospective seller or lessor and a prospective buyer or lessee of real estate only after the licensee informs both the seller or lessor and the buyer or lessee of the dual agency representation and obtains written consent to the dual agency representation from both principals.

(d) When a change occurs during a transaction that makes a prior written disclosure required by this section incomplete, misleading, or inaccurate, the licensee shall make a revised disclosure, in writing, to all parties to the transaction as soon as possible. The revised disclosure must include the date of the revision and shall be acknowledged in writing by all the parties. However, until the nature of the licensee's relationship with a party is completely established, a revised disclosure is not required under this subsection if the licensee obtains from the party a written preauthorized consent to changes before the changes occur.

(e) In a civil action for the failure of a licensee to comply with the provisions of this section, the plaintiff's remedy is limited to the recovery of actual damages. This subsection does not limit a person's ability to take any other action or pursue any other remedy to which the person may be entitled under other law.

(f) This section applies only to acts that occur before the effective date of this subsection.

(3) the employment arrangement between the licensed assistant and the salesperson or associate real estate broker is in writing and conforms to the applicable state and federal regulations regarding employment;

(4) the employment of the licensed assistant is approved in writing by the broker who employs both the salesperson or associate real estate broker and the licensed assistant;

(5) the salesperson or associate real estate broker who employs the licensed assistant agrees to be responsible for paying the licensed assistant's wages and appropriate taxes and completing the appropriate state and federal tax forms; and

(6) the broker of the salesperson or associate real estate broker who employs the licensed assistant agrees to be liable for the actions of the licensed assistant.

(b) A person

(1) who is not a real estate broker licensed in this state may not accept a fee or a commission for performance of an act for which a license is required by this chapter except that a real estate broker validly licensed in another state may accept a fee or commission or a portion of a fee or commission for assisting a real estate broker licensed in this state in the performance of an act for which a license is required by this chapter;

(2) who is an associate broker or a real estate salesperson licensed in this state may accept a fee or commission for performance of an act for which a license is required by this chapter only from the licensee's employing broker, except that the wages of a person who is engaged as a licensed assistant under AS 08.88.398 may be accepted by the person from the assistant's employer.

Sec. 08.88.450. Real estate recovery fund. (a) The real estate recovery fund is established in the general fund to carry out the purposes of AS 08.88.450 - 08.88.495. The fund is composed of payments made by real estate licensees under AS 08.88.455, filing fees retained under AS 08.88.460, income earned on investment of the money in the fund, and money deposited in the fund under (c) of this section. Money in the fund does not lapse. The commission may make payments from the fund for awards from the fund under AS 08.88.450 - 08.88.495, for hearing and legal expenses directly related to fund operations and claims, and for real estate educational purposes.

(b) The Department of Commerce, Community, and Economic Development shall provide the commission every three months with a statement of the activities of, balances in, interest earned on, and interest returned to the real estate recovery fund.

(c) If money from the real estate recovery fund is expended to prepare, print, manufacture, sponsor, produce, or otherwise provide an item or a service to a member of the public, to a real estate licensee, to a potential real estate licensee, or to another person, any money paid by the person to the commission, either directly or through an agent or contractor of the commission, to receive the item or service shall be deposited in the fund. In this subsection, "an item or a service" includes an information pamphlet, an examination preparation packet, an educational course, the certification of a real estate education course, and the approval of a real estate education instructor.

After each two-year licensing cycle, if the commission finds that the average balance in the recovery fund during the two-year licensing cycle was less than $250,000 or more than $500,000, the commission shall by regulation adjust the recovery fund fees so that the average balance of the recovery fund during the next two-year licensing cycle is anticipated to be an amount that is not less than $250,000 or more than $500,000. In this subsection, "average balance" means the average balance after taking into account anticipated expenditures for awards from the fund and legal expenses directly related to fund operations, and for real estate educational purposes.

(b) All fees collected under this section shall be paid at least once a month by the department into the general fund. These payments shall be credited to the real estate recovery fund.

Sec. 08.88.460. Claim for payment. (a) Subject to (e) of this section, a person seeking an award from the recovery fund for a loss suffered in a real estate transaction as a result of fraud, an intentional tort, deceit, or the conversion of trust funds or the conversion of community association accounts under the control of a community association manager on the part of a person licensed under this chapter shall

(3) make a claim to the commission for an award from the recovery fund on a form furnished by the commission; in order to be eligible for an award by the commission, the claim form must be filed within two years after the date a judgment, arbitration award, or settlement agreement that is the basis for the award from the recovery fund is no longer subject to appeal; the form must be executed under penalty of unsworn falsification in the second degree and must include

(c) [Repealed, § 24 ch 113 SLA 2008.]

(d) A claimant under this section shall pay a filing fee of $250 to the commission at the time the claim is filed. The filing fee shall be refunded if the

(1) commission makes an award to the claimant from the real estate recovery fund; or

(2) claimant withdraws the claim.

(e) If the claim is for a loss incurred as a result of acts or omissions occurring in the course of the licensee's practice of community association management, only the owners' association for which the real estate licensee practices community association management may file a claim under this section.

(c) [Repealed, § 24 ch 113 SLA 2008.]

AS 08.88.910 does not apply to this subsection.

Sec. 08.88.474. Payment of small claims judgment. [Repealed, § 24 ch 113 SLA 2008.]

Sec. 08.88.475. Maximum liability. (a) The maximum liability of the real estate recovery fund may not exceed $50,000 for any one real estate licensee.

(b) If the $50,000 liability of the fund as provided in (a) of this section is insufficient to pay in full the valid claims of all persons who have obtained a final judgment, final arbitration award, or settlement agreement involving an individual licensee and have filed claims for an award from the recovery fund, the $50,000 shall be distributed among the claimants in the ratio that their individual claims bear to the aggregate of valid claims, or in another manner that the commission considers equitable. Distribution shall be among the persons entitled to share in the recovery without regard to the order in which their claims were filed.

Sec. 08.88.480. Order of claim payment. If the money deposited in the real estate recovery fund is insufficient at a given time to satisfy a legally authorized claim against the fund, the commission shall, when sufficient money has been deposited in the fund and appropriated, satisfy unpaid claims in the order that the claims were originally filed, plus accumulated interest at the rate of eight percent a year.

Sec. 08.88.485. False claims or documents. A person who files with the commission a notice, statement, or other document required under this chapter that contains a wilful material misstatement of fact, is guilty of a misdemeanor and is punishable by imprisonment for a period of not more than one year, or a fine of not more than $1,000, or by both.

Sec. 08.88.490. Right to subrogation. When the commission has paid to a claimant from the real estate recovery fund the sum awarded by the commission, the commission shall be subrogated to all of the rights of the claimant to the amount paid, and the claimant shall assign all right, title, and interest in that portion of the claim to the commission. Money collected by the commission on the claim shall be deposited to the real estate recovery fund.

Sec. 08.88.495. Disciplinary action. Repayment in full of all obligations to the real estate recovery fund does not nullify or modify the effect of disciplinary proceedings brought under the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 08.88.600. License relationships. (a) A real estate licensee who provides real estate services to one party in a real estate transaction represents only that party unless the parties to the transaction agree otherwise in writing.

(b) A real estate licensee may not provide real estate services to more than one party in the same real estate transaction, except that

- (1) a licensee may represent one party to the transaction while providing specific assistance to an unrepresented party to the transaction;
- (2) a licensee may act as a neutral licensee under (c) of this section;
- (3) a licensee may also, with the written consent of the parties, be a party to the transaction; or
- (4) the parties to the transaction may agree otherwise in writing, except as provided by AS 08.88.625.

(c) A real estate licensee may provide specific assistance to both the seller and buyer, or both the lessor and lessee, in the same real estate transaction as a neutral licensee if the licensee complies with AS 08.88.610.

(d) A real estate licensee who works for a real estate broker may represent or provide specific assistance to a person in a real estate transaction even if the broker or another licensee who is working for the broker represents or provides specific assistance to another person in the same transaction. The broker shall designate which licensee, including the broker, is the designated licensee for the seller or lessor and which licensee, including the broker, is the designated licensee for the buyer or lessee.

Sec. 08.88.605. Additional licensee relationship provisions. (a) A real estate licensee may provide real estate services to a party in separate real estate transactions under different licensee relationships if the licensee complies with AS 08.88.600 – 08.88.695 when establishing the relationship for each transaction.

(b) The authorization under (a) of this section includes acting as a real estate licensee for a party in one real estate transaction and at the same time not representing that party in a different real estate transaction involving that party.

Sec. 08.88.610. Authorization of neutral licensee relationship. (a) Before a real estate licensee begins acting as a neutral licensee, the real estate licensee may obtain preauthorization from a person to act as a neutral licensee in the person’s real estate transaction by obtaining the written consent of the person.

(b) If preauthorization is not obtained under (a) of this section, when a buyer or lessee expresses an interest to the licensee in acquiring or leasing real estate and the licensee is representing the seller or lessor of the property, the licensee shall obtain written consent to act as a neutral licensee before the licensee shows the real estate.

(c) A written consent under this section must be provided on a separate form, may not be contained in another writing, and must be entitled “Waiver of Right To Be Represented.”

Sec. 08.88.615. Duties owed by licensee in all licensee relationships. (a) Unless additional duties are agreed to in a written document signed by the person, and regardless of the type of licensee relationship in which the real estate licensee is acting, a real estate licensee owes the following duties to each person to whom the licensee provides specific assistance:

- (1) the exercise of reasonable skill and care;
- (2) honest and good faith dealing;
- (3) the presentation of all written offers, written notices, and other written communications to and from the person in a timely manner regardless of whether the real estate is subject to an existing contract for sale or lease or the person is already a party to an existing contract to buy or lease real estate;
- (4) except as provided in (b) of this section, the disclosure of all material information known by the licensee regarding the physical condition of real estate if the information substantially adversely affects the real estate or a person’s ability to perform the person’s obligations in the real estate transaction or if the information would materially impair or defeat the purpose of the real estate transaction;
- (5) accounting in a timely manner for all money and other property received from or on behalf of the person;
- (6) before the licensee provides specific assistance to the person, or when entering into a contract with the person to provide specific assistance, providing a copy of the pamphlet established under AS 08.88.685(b)(2) and produced under AS 08.88.685(c) that outlines the duties of the types of licensee relationships identified under AS 08.88.600;
- (7) before the licensee provides specific assistance to the person, obtaining from the person a document signed by the person that discloses the licensee’s relationship with the person;
- (8) in addition to the document provided under (7) of this subsection, providing to the person when the person signs an offer in a real estate transaction handled by the licensee a written statement that states whether the licensee represents the buyer, represents the seller, represents the lessee, represents the lessor, or provides specific assistance to both the buyer and the seller or both the lessee and the lessor as a neutral licensee; the statement must be contained in a separate paragraph entitled “Licensee Relationships” in the contract between the buyer and seller or the lessee and lessor, or in a separate document entitled "Licensee Relationships."

(b) The disclosure requirements of (a)(4) of this section may not be construed to imply a duty to

(1) investigate a matter that

(A) the licensee has not agreed to investigate; or

(B) is not known by the seller, prospective buyer, lessor, prospective lessee, or licensee; or

(2) disclose, unless otherwise provided by law, events that have occurred on the real estate that might affect whether a person wants to buy or lease the real estate.

(c) Notwithstanding (b)(2) of this section, before a buyer makes or accepts an offer in a real estate transaction, a real estate licensee shall disclose to the buyer that a murder or suicide occurred on the real property that is the subject of the real estate transaction if

(1) the murder or suicide occurred within one year before the date that the licensee first showed the real estate to the buyer; and

(2) the licensee is aware that the murder or suicide occurred on the real estate.

Sec. 08.88.620. Duties owed by licensee representing a person. Unless additional duties are agreed to in a written document signed by the person represented by the licensee, a real estate licensee who represents the person owes the person the following duties in addition to the other duties imposed by AS 08.88.615:

(1) not taking action that the licensee knows is adverse or detrimental to the interest of the represented person in a real estate transaction;

(2) disclosure of a conflict of interest to the represented person in a timely manner;

(3) advising the represented person to obtain expert advice on a matter that relates to the real estate transaction that is beyond the licensee's expertise;

(4) not disclosing confidential information from or about the represented person without written consent, except under a subpoena or another court order, even after termination of the licensee's relationship with the represented person;

(5) if the represented person is a seller or a lessor, unless otherwise agreed to in writing, making a good faith and continuous effort to find a buyer or lessee for the real estate of the seller or lessor, except that a licensee is not required to seek additional offers to buy or lease the real estate while the real estate is subject to an existing contract for sale or lease; and

(6) if the represented party is a buyer or a lessee, unless otherwise agreed to in writing, making a good faith and continuous effort to find real estate for the buyer or lessee, except that a licensee is not obligated to

(A) seek additional real estate to buy or lease for the buyer or lessee while the buyer or lessee is a party to an existing contract to buy or lease real estate; or

(B) show to the buyer or lessee real estate for which there is not a written agreement to pay compensation to the licensee.

Sec. 08.88.625. Waiver of duties. A real estate licensee or a person to whom a licensee provides specific assistance may not waive the duties identified under AS 08.88.615 and 08.88.620, except as otherwise allowed under AS 08.88.620(5) and (6).

Sec. 08.88.630. Duties not owed by licensee. Unless agreed otherwise, a real estate licensee does not owe a duty to a person with whom the licensee has established a licensee relationship to

(1) conduct an independent inspection of the real estate that is the subject of the licensee relationship;

(2) conduct an independent investigation of a person's financial condition; or

(3) independently verify the accuracy or completeness of a statement made by a party to a real estate transaction or by a person reasonably believed by the licensee to be reliable.

Sec. 08.88.635. Acts not amounting to adverse to detrimental acts or conflicts of interest. (a) If a licensee shows real estate not owned or leased by the seller or lessor to prospective buyers or lessees or lists competing properties for sale or lease, this activity does not by itself constitute action that is adverse or detrimental to the seller or lessor or create a conflict of interest under AS 08.88.391.

(b) The representation of more than one seller or lessor by the same licensee or by different licensees working for the same real estate broker in competing transactions involving the same buyer or lessee does not by itself constitute action that is adverse or detrimental to the sellers or lessors or create a conflict of interest under AS 08.88.391.

(c) If a licensee shows real estate in which the buyer or lessee is interested to other prospective buyers or lessees, this activity does not by itself constitute action that is adverse or detrimental to the buyer or lessee or create a conflict of interest under AS 08.88.391.

(d) The representation of more than one buyer or lessee by the same licensee or by different licensees working for the same real estate broker in competing transactions involving the same seller or lessor does not by itself constitute action that is adverse or detrimental to the sellers or lessors or create a conflict of interest under AS 08.88.391.

(e) Acting as a neutral licensee in compliance with AS 08.88.600 – 08.88.695 does not by itself constitute action that is adverse or detrimental to a seller, lessor, buyer, or lessee or create a conflict of interest under AS 08.88.391.

(f) A real estate licensee who discloses confidential information to the licensee's broker for the purpose of seeking advice or assistance for the benefit of the person to whom the licensee is providing specific assistance does not breach the licensee's duty of confidentiality to the person, but the licensee's broker has a duty to maintain the confidentiality of the information.

Sec. 08.88.640. Designated licensee relationship. (a) Unless the broker is the designated licensee, the relationship, including the duties, obligations, and responsibilities of the relationship, established between a person and a designated real estate licensee does not extend to the real estate broker for whom the designated licensee is working, to another real estate licensee who works for the same real estate broker, or to an owner of the business that employs the real estate broker. The extent or limitations of the relationship between the broker with the designated licensee shall be disclosed to the parties to a real estate transaction.

(b) A real estate broker may have a different designated licensee working for a seller or lessor and for the buyer or lessee in the same real estate transaction. Having a different designated licensee working for a seller or lessor and for the buyer or lessee in the same real estate transaction does not create dual agency or a conflict of interest for the real estate broker or for a licensee employed by the same real estate broker.

(c) A designated real estate licensee may represent or provide specific assistance to a person who is a seller or lessor in one real estate transaction while representing or providing specific assistance to the person as a buyer or lessee in another real estate transaction.

(d) Unless the broker is the designated licensee, when a designated licensee represents or provides specific assistance as a designated licensee to a person in a real estate transaction, the knowledge received by the designated licensee while representing or providing specific assistance to the person is not imputed to the real estate broker for whom the designated licensee works, to another real estate licensee employed by or under contract to the broker, or to an owner of the business that employs the real estate broker.

(e) This section may not be construed to limit the responsibility of a real estate broker, or of an owner of a business that employs the real estate broker, to supervise designated licensees who work for the broker or who work for the business that employs the broker, or to shield the broker or business from vicarious liability for the acts of the designated licensees.

Sec. 08.88.645. Duties of neutral licensee. (a) Unless additional duties are agreed to in a written document signed by the neutral licensee and the seller, buyer, lessor, or lessee, the duties of a neutral licensee are limited to the duties established for real estate licensees under AS 08.88.615 and the following duties:

(1) not to take action that the neutral licensee knows is adverse or detrimental to the interest of the persons to whom the neutral licensee provides services in the real estate transaction;

(2) to disclose a conflict of interest in a timely manner to all parties to whom the licensee provides specific assistance;

(3) to advise all parties to whom the licensee provides specific assistance for the transaction to obtain expert advice on a matter relating to the transaction that is beyond the expertise of the neutral licensee;

(4) not to disclose without written consent confidential information from or about any of the parties to whom the licensee is providing specific assistance to another party to whom the licensee is providing specific assistance in the transaction, except under a subpoena or another court order, even after the relationship with the party terminates;

(5) not to disclose without the consent of the person to whom the information relates

(A) that the buyer or lessee is willing to pay more than the price offered for the real estate;

(B) that the seller or lessor is willing to accept less than the asking price for the real estate; or

(C) that the seller, buyer, lessor, or lessee will agree to financing terms other than those terms offered.

(b) A neutral licensee does not violate the duties of a neutral licensee if, with written consent, the neutral licensee engages in the following conduct in a good faith effort to assist in reaching final agreement in a real estate transaction:

(1) analyzing, providing information on, or reporting on the merits of the transaction to each party;

(2) discussing the price, terms, or conditions that each party would or should offer or accept; or

(3) suggesting compromises in the parties' respective bargaining positions.

Sec. 08.88.650. No imputation of knowledge resulting from neutral licensee relationship. In a neutral licensee relationship, the knowledge or information of the licensee about one client is not imputed to other clients or to other licensees who work for the same real estate broker.

Sec. 08.88.655. Compensation. (a) A real estate broker may be compensated by any party to a real estate transaction, by a third party, or by one or more of the parties to the transaction splitting or sharing the compensation.

(b) The payment of compensation to a real estate broker may not be construed to establish a relationship between the broker and the party who pays the compensation.

(c) If a real estate licensee provides specific assistance or enters into a personal services contract to act as a real estate licensee for a person, or if a seller and buyer, or a lessor and lessee, enter into a contract to sell, buy, or lease real estate, the real estate licensee shall disclose which party the licensee anticipates will be paying compensation to the real estate brokers in the real estate transaction.

(d) A real estate licensee shall include in a contract to sell, buy, or lease real estate a statement indicating which party is paying compensation to the real estate brokers in the real estate transaction.

Sec. 08.88.660. Duration of relationship. (a) A licensee relationship with a buyer, lessee, seller, or lessor begins when the licensee represents or provides specific assistance to the buyer, lessee, seller, or lessor and continues until the earliest of the following events occurs:

- (1) the licensee completes the representation or specific assistance;
- (2) the relationship term agreed on by the buyer, lessee, seller, or lessor terminates;
- (3) the licensee and the parties to the relationship terminate the relationship by mutual agreement; or
- (4) a party to the relationship terminates the relationship by giving notice to the other party.

(b) The termination of a relationship under (a)(3) or (4) of this section only terminates the licensee relationship and does not affect other contractual rights of the parties to the licensee relationship.

(c) Except as otherwise agreed to in writing, a licensee does not owe a further duty to a buyer, lessee, seller, or lessor after termination of the licensee relationship, except for the duties of accounting for all money and other property received during the relationship and not disclosing confidential information.

Sec. 08.88.665. Vicarious liability. A seller, buyer, lessor, or lessee is not liable for an act, error, or omission of a real estate licensee that arises out of the licensee relationship,

- (1) unless the seller, buyer, lessor, or lessee participated in or authorized the act, error, or omission and then only to the extent of the participation or authorization; or
- (2) except to the extent that the seller, buyer, lessor, or lessee benefited from the act, error, or omission, and a court determines that it is highly probable that the person claiming damages for the act, error, or omission would be unable to enforce a judgement against the licensee.

Sec. 08.88.670. Imputed knowledge and notice. (a) Unless otherwise agreed to in writing, a seller, buyer, lessor, or lessee is not considered to have knowledge or notice of a fact known by a real estate licensee of the seller, buyer, lessor, or lessee unless the fact is actually known by the seller, buyer, lessor, or lessee.

(b) Unless otherwise agreed to in writing, a real estate licensee does not have knowledge or notice of a fact that is not actually known by the licensee.

Sec. 08.88.675. Common law abrogated. The common law of agency related to real estate licensee relationships in real estate transactions is expressly abrogated to the extent inconsistent with AS 08.88.600 – 08.88.695.

Sec. 08.88.680. Causes of action. (a) A person may not bring an action against a neutral licensee for making a disclosure that is required or permitted under this chapter.

(b) In a civil action for the failure of a licensee to comply with the provisions of AS 08.88.600 – 08.88.695, the plaintiff's remedy is limited to the recovery of actual damages. This subsection does not limit a person's ability to take any other action or pursue any other remedy to which the person may be entitled under other law.

Sec. 08.88.685. Policies, guidelines, and requirements. (a) A broker shall adopt written policies and procedures available to the commission and to members of the public on request that

- (1) require real estate licensees to comply with all real estate laws;
- (2) require real estate licensees to act fairly and honestly in all dealings;
- (3) require real estate licensees to notify the broker or a broker designee of any legal dispute or allegation of wrongdoing from a seller, buyer, lessor, or lessee;
- (4) require real estate licensees to maintain regular communication with the broker or a broker designee; and
- (5) identify and describe the relationships in which the broker and the real estate licensees who work for the broker may engage with a seller, buyer, lessor, or lessee.

(b) The commission shall adopt regulations that establish

- (1) guidelines to assist a broker to adopt the written policy required by (a) of this section;
- (2) the contents and format of the pamphlet to be provided by a licensee under AS 08.88.615(a)(6); and
- (3) requirements for a broker's supervision of the real estate licensees who work for the broker.

(c) Based on the content and format for the pamphlets established under (b)(2) of this section, a real estate broker shall produce and pay the costs to produce the actual pamphlets to be provided by licensees in the broker's business under AS 08.88.615(a)(6).

Sec. 08.88.690. Exemptions. A real estate licensee is exempt from the signature requirements of AS 08.88.600 – 08.88.695 when the licensee provides specific assistance to

- (1) a corporation that issues publicly traded securities;

12 AAC 02.530. STANDARDS FOR EQUIVALENT COVERAGE. An insurer issuing equivalent coverage under AS 08.88.172(c)(2) shall hold a certificate of authority issued under AS 21.09. All activities contemplated under AS 08.88.172 must be covered. The insurance must meet the minimum coverage standards of 12 AAC 02.510, except that

(1) a policy with a higher deductible amount or self-insured retention will qualify as equivalent coverage for purposes of AS 08.88.172(c)(2) if the insured licensee provides the Alaska Real Estate Commission with an affidavit certifying that the insured licensee has the financial resources to pay the higher deductible amount or self-insured retention; and

(2) a broker employing other real estate licensees may comply with the requirements of 12 AAC 02.510(a)(1) and (2) by obtaining insurance with coverage of a minimum of $200,000 per wrongful act and $1,000,000 aggregate, if all licensees associated with the broker are covered.

12 AAC 02.540. NOTIFICATION REQUIRED FOR CANCELLATION. If equivalent insurance coverage obtained by a licensee under AS 08.88.172(c)(2) is to lapse or not be renewed, the insurer shall notify the Real Estate Commission of the intent to lapse or not to renew a minimum of 30 days before the expiration date of the term. 12 AAC 02.560. METHOD OF ADJUSTMENT. Every five years after the initial procurement of the master errors and omissions insurance policy, the department may adjust the amount of coverage under 12 AAC 02.510(a) and the maximum amount of the premium under 12 AAC 02.550 to reflect the change in the consumer price index for all urban consumers in the Anchorage metropolitan area using the standards set out in this section. The department will not make an adjustment if the department finds the adjustment will significantly reduce the number of insurers willing to bid on a contract to offer the master errors and omissions insurance policy. An adjustment in the limits of liability under 12 AAC 02.510(a) must be an increment of no less than $25,000. An adjustment in the amount of the premium must be in an increment of no less than $25. The department will give notice of the adjustments under this section by posting the amounts on its Internet Website. An adjustment under this section does not take effect until the renewal or the issuance of a new master errors and omissions insurance policy.
