Recommendation: Evaluate the request for reinstatement and renewal pursuant to 3 AAC 304.160(e) and (f).

May 9th, 2017

Dear Sir or Madam;

On Monday, May 8th I was made aware that our License #61 (Beverage Dispensary) and License #62 (Package Store) were not renewed for 2017 & 2018. Prior to October 2016 my sister and co-owner Brooke Johnson handled all the paperwork for Tiny Wings. At the beginning of October, we began the process of forwarding Tiny Wings mail in Cordova to where I spend much of the winter months in Oregon. Somehow in the transition to me taking on the paperwork, I missed any documentation that the licenses were up for renewal. As soon as I received notice on Monday we scrambled to find out what was needed to renew and get this taken care of ASAP. Our intention was never to create this problem, and are very sorry if we created work for anybody because of this. Please accept our sincere apology and allow us to renew our licenses. If there is anything else we need to do, please don't hesitate to let me know immediately.

Thank you,

To: ABC Board;

RE: Anchor Bar & Grill License #61 & #62

I would like to offer some clarification on our request to reinstate the Anchor Bar & Grill liquor licenses #61 & #62 due to a failure on our part to submit the renewal application in the required time.

For the last couple of years my business partner (and sister) handled the paperwork responsibilities for Tiny Wings Inc. I am primarily a commercial fisherman in the summer and spend a good portion of my winter in Oregon. At the conclusion of the commercial fishing season it was agreed that my sister, who has a full-time job with the Native Village of Eyak, pass on the Tiny Wings paperwork workload over to me.

When it came time in September for the transition, we temporarily forwarded Tiny Wings PO Box in Cordova to my address in Oregon, and I took possession of a large volume of company files to start getting familiar with.

In the winter, I do work with another business my wife and I own in Oregon, along with duties & travel as an executive board member with PWSAC (Prince William Sound Aquaculture Corporation). This workload coupled with the additional Tiny Wings administrative duties was a considerable amount to take on, but one I believed was manageable.

Unfortunately, while I feel I did a pretty good job accomplishing all items, there was a learning curve on all the ordering, inventory, state requirements, renewals and deadlines. This is where we come to the renewal of the liquor licenses. What I can say simply is that I don't remember seeing any paperwork on this this fall. Since these licenses are renewed every 2 years and I didn't see any paperwork, this renewal wasn't even on my radar to check up on. That is my mistake, and the instant I was made aware of this on May 8th we stopped all operations at the Anchor Bar & Grill. Within 48 hours I had both renewal forms signed, notarized and payment submitted.

I respectfully ask that the ABC Board allow the renewal and instatement of the liquor licenses #61 & #62 for Tiny Wings, Inc. The Anchor Bar has been in operation in the community of Cordova for decades and has a very good history with the state of Alaska and as a fisherman watering hole. We have tremendous support from residents to season fishermen to cannery workers. The failure to renew was nothing but a simple oversight on my part on something I thought was taken care of, of which I can't express how sorry I am that this happened. I understand that there are regulations and deadlines for a reason, and I take them very seriously. I don't believe the spirit of them was to permanently penalize a business for a simple paperwork miscommunication that was immediately rectified. Between when we were shut down on May 8th and when we received the temporary liquor license on June 1st, we lost about $30,000 in revenue. For a small Cordova bar that relies on seasonal business this was very, very significant. I feel this was a sufficient penalty and I can say the lesson was learned. The 2019 renewal is already on my calendar.

Thank you for your time and consideration. At the time you read this I will probably be salmon seining around Valdez, but I should have cell phone contact and email access should anybody want to contact me further about this.

Respectfully,

Eli Johnson
