Notice of Violation
By the Alcohol & Marijuana Control Office

Anchorage, Alaska 99501

From the Licensee: Thirty-Five Plus Singles Club Inc.

407 Denali Street, Anchorage, AK

Violation consists of

"The 35+ Singles Club made ownership changes (change of directors on the board of directors) without notifying AMCO in the proper time allowed."

RESPONSE: A long-standing director dealing with the Alcohol License died recently of cancer. She had not shared information with other board members. Some 35+ Club Records which were kept at her home were either lost or destroyed after her death. We (the board) simply did not know we needed to report board member changes within a certain timeframe. We regret the inconvenience. In order to assure that something like this does not happen in the future, we are preparing a calendar of important events and requirements, to be kept with our Bylaws and other important papers at the Club address in a locked file cabinet. It will be updated as needed.

Respectfully,

Carol Huber

Vice President of the 35+ Club

This is in response to the Notice of Violation dated 12-11-17, BPO Elks Lodge #2127.

Our Corporation Officers with the Department of Commerce was outdated and did not match with the officers listed on our AB-17 Renewal Application.

We worked with Alcohol Licensing to resolve this discrepancy and an amended AB-17 has been filed with Licensing and Notice of Change of Officials has been filed with Department of Commerce.

This was an oversight on our part and we hope this resolves this issue.

If more information is needed, please contact me.

In reference to Notice of Violation dated 12/7/17 concerning Beverage Dispensary Lic #3173 and Package Store Lic #1767 in the licensee name of Luna Sea, Inc.

The failure to notify AMCO in accordance with Statute AS04.11.050 was an unfortunate error on my part. The surrounding circumstances, although not an excuse, was simply a income tax advantage.

I am currently out of State for medical and do not yet know the status of my condition so it is difficult to say when I will be back in the office in Fairbanks.

Please contact me by email kelcofai@gmail.com or phone @ 9073786582 with direction on how to proceed on this violation.

The email forwarded below is our response to AMCO regarding the Notice of Violation dated 12/18/17.

Officers of the Eagle River Lions Club are:

President Charles "Chuck" Thomas

I searched your website and could not find a form to report out officers to AMCO, although I am not very good at using computers or searches.

Please let me know what needs to be done, and we will accomplish it as soon as possible.

I am the registered agent for service for the Eagle River Lions Club, and was given the Notice of Violation dated 12/18/17. The violation was our failure to notify AMCO of a change of our corporate officers.

We were not aware of the fact that there was a requirement to notify AMCO of changes in our corporate officers, and request that you tell us what we need to do to remedy this violation. I assume there is a form to document this information for AMCO, but I was unable to find it on your website.

Our Corporate Biennial Report for 2017 was filed in June listing Charles Thomas as President, Jerry Wasson as Secretary, and Gary Brown as Vice-President. I am not aware of any other reporting requirements. However, our Biennial Report is incorrect as the Vice President should have been Dave Brown, not Gary. That was my fault and I will correct that with Division of Corporations on December 27th.

We would greatly appreciate any assistance you can provide so we can properly respond to the Notice of Violation.

Mr. Hamilton,

Last May of 2017, I filed our Biennial Report with the Division of Corporations (CBPL), updating the officers and positions. Without any direction from my predecessors and what I did not understand is, that I needed to make the same change notifications with the AMCO.
To prevent this from happening in the future I will instruct who replaces me in the proper procedure for updating the officers with the AMCO office.

Sincerely,

My name is Brett Holt. I am the current

Secretary for Frat. Order of Eagles # 3525. I have attached the forms AB-17: 2018/2019 requested by Mr. Zielinski. I have sent the hard copy by mail on Saturday December 16th, 2017. Earlier that morning, while at the post office, I picked up the certified letter sent to us from Mr. J. Hamilton from the AMCO enforcement office.

Last May of 2017, I filed our Biennial Report with the Division of Corporations (CBPL), updating the officers and positions. Without any direction from my predecessors and what I did not understand is, that I needed to make the same change notifications with the AMCO. I messed this up and I need help now to correct this.

We had to install a new Vice President on our last regular meeting on Wednesday December 12th. After our meeting installing the new Vice President, Norman Holt, I downloaded the CBPL Notice D Non-Profit Change of Officials. I have completed and sent it into the CBPL office. I have attached it for you to see.

I will call both your office numbers tomorrow morning.

The failure to notify AMCO in accordance with Statute AS04.11.050 was an unfortunate error on my part. The surrounding circumstances, although not an excuse, was simply a income tax advantage.

I am currently out of State for medical and do not yet know the status of my condition so it is difficult to say when I will be back in the office in Fairbanks.

Mr. McConnell:

Our office represents Lisa Owens, who is the owner and operator of the Manley Lodge.

On December 27, 2017, Ms. Owens received a violation notice (attached for your quick reference), wherein it is stated that an "unreported transfer of ownership" occurred. The Manley Lodge is a sole proprietorship, and has been operated that way since the license was transferred to her. It was an inadvertent mistake to inactivate the Manley Lodge business license and transfer the lodge ownership to the Manley Trading Post, Inc. There was some miscommunication between she and her accountant. Lisa Owens, has always been the sole owner of the lodge, and still is, and has and intends to continue to operate as a sole proprietorship.

Therefore, it is our understanding that if Ms. Owens, secures a business license showing that she is the owner of the Manley Lodge, and a copy is provided to you, you will update your records to remove the violation and put it back in good standing status. Please advise.

If there is anything further that needs to be done to remedy this violation, please advise.

Once we have your response, we will move forward to correct the violation.

Thank you for your assistance with this matter.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Hamilton:

We have been retained to represent Lisa Owens, with regard to the Notice of Violation you issued to her on December 27, 2017. Attorney Kuchle met with Ms. Owens for the first time yesterday regarding the violation. We are working through sorting through the details in an attempt to correct matters for ABC, but we may not have them corrected by January 8, 2018, which is the deadline for her to respond to the violation.

Are you willing to accept this e-mail as notification that we are working to correct the violation? If not, would you please advise when the next ABC Board meeting will be so Ms. Owens and Attorney Jo A. Kuchle can plan to attend?

Thank you for your attention to this matter. We look forward to hearing from you. If you have questions, please feel free to call. (I've copied Lisa Owens with this e-mail, so she can confirm our representation, should you need that).
