RE: Windbreak Hotel, Cafe, Lounge, Trout House Liquor License #1925

Board Members

1) As in the past, we continue to encourage the local fishing in the area by displaying peoples pictures of the fish that they have caught. We continue to promote the Matanuska - Susitna Borough as, "The Stillwater Fishing Capital of Alaska." The owner, Robert Andres, through his collaboration and enthusiasm has been published many times with the Alaska magazine, further assisting in the recreation and spirit of still water fishing. All the more, the Mat-Su Borough issued a proclamation honoring Robert Andres for giving the state of Alaska its "Stillwater Fishing Capital" trademark in addition to marketing, advertising, and promoting the goods and services of others in the field of travel and tourism. Two films featuring Robert have been broadcasted around the world and in our local Sportsman's Warehouse, publicizing the local treasures found in Alaska. The Windbreak is an Alaskan landmark where guests stop in to ask questions and see our fish display.

2) Through our new feature, Expedia and Booking, our hotel can be discovered effortlessly for people looking to stay somewhere affordable and in the heart of wasilla.

3) Robert Andres (operates the facility)

4) We have ten hotel rooms which we rent out. The rooms do not have kitchenettes and are not stocked with alcohol.

5) We have a full service of 250 seats in Cafe and Lounge that offer Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner.

6) No

We like to thank you for letting us continue to offer the best food, service and atmosphere in Alaska.

Sincerely,

A&W Windbreak, Inc.
