Tourism Statement
Alaskan Park Properties, Inc.
5130 Denali Backcountry Lodge

The Denali Backcountry Lodge in Denali National Park encourages tourism in many ways.

The property has a spacious two-story main lodge and 42 individual cabins for our guests inside Denali National Park at Kantishna. None of these cabins have kitchens. All meals are included and provided in the main lodge where a small bar is provided for guests who desire to enjoy an alcoholic beverage during their stay. We do not supply food or beverages in our room.

Chris Hudson, Alaskan Park Properties, Inc.'s General Manager, oversees the operation of the Denali Backcountry Lodge. Mr. Hudson reports directly to Fernando Salvador, Vice President and General Manager for the Alaska Collection by Pursuit.

Along with providing lodging at our locations, we also operate a bus tour into and out of Denali National Park each day during the summer. We also lead guided hikes as well as provide fishing gear and bicycles for no additional cost.

We expend significant resources marketing the entire State of Alaska as a tourism destination when we send out over 50,000 full color brochures every year. We advertise our website through online marketing channels and spend a tremendous amount of money each year in order to maintain prominent positions on all of the major search engines.

When guests call us to book our properties we will spend countless hours working with them to help plan their trip of a lifetime to Alaska. We help them book lodging and activities all over the State and we are one of the largest package tour companies in Alaska, making thousands of bookings each year.
