

MEMORANDUM

TO: Board Chair and
Members of the ABC Board
FROM: Erika McConnell, Director

DATE: August 14, 2018

RE: #5130 Denali Backcountry Lodge

This is an application to transfer the ownership of a Beverage Dispensary – Tourism license in the Denali Borough. This license was first issued on May 12, 2012.

AS 04.11.400(d)(1)(B) requires 20 rental rooms if the population is 1,501 – 2,500. The Denali Borough has a certified population of 1,576.

The applicant offers 42 guest cabins, none of which include kitchenettes. Alcohol is not stocked in the rental rooms, and the establishment has a full-service dining facility.

Beverage Dispensary Tourism (Seasonal) Liquor License No. 5130 -Denali Backcountry Lodge Tourism Narrative

Alaskan Park Properties, Inc. ("APPI") is the holder of (a) a Beverage Dispensary License Tourism license number 5129 (located at Milepost 229 of the Parks Highway) and operated as the Prey Bar & Eatery at the APPI's Denali Cabins facility ("Denali Cabins") and ( b) a Beverage Dispensary License Tourism license number 5130 (located at Mile 92 of the Denali Park Road) in conjunction with the restaurant and bar facilities located at APPI's Denali Backcountry Lodge facility (the "Denali Backcountry Lodge"). Both licenses are seasonal licenses with operations from April 15th to October 14th of each year, during tourism season in the Denali Park area.

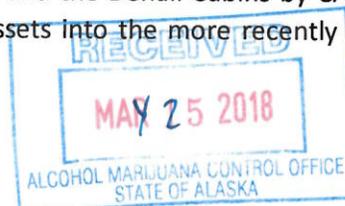

Denali Cabins is comprised of 46 guest cabins plus a restaurant and bar facility on the Parks Highway, together with lodging for employees. The Denali Backcountry Lodge is comprised of 42 guest cabins, plus a dining room and bar facility located in the historic Kantishna district of Denali National Park. There are no kitchen facilities in any of the cabins, and none of the cabins are stocked with alcoholic beverages.

The employee lodging facilities at both the Denali Cabins and the Denali Backcountry Lodge were materially upgraded in 2018.

The clientele of both the Denali Cabins and the Denali Backcountry Lodge are principally tourists who come from all over the world plus the United States and the State of Alaska to visit Denali National Park and its numerous inspiring attractions and experiences. APPI provides amenities such as bus tours from the Denali Cabins on the Parks Highway and near the Denali National Park Headquarters into Mile 92 of the park and to the Denali Backcountry Lodge. There are a plethora of activities and attractions available in conjunction with both the Denali Cabins and the Denali Backcountry Lodge, including such activities as fishing, hiking, guided hikes, naturalist led hikes, gold panning and wild life viewing. In addition, both the Denali Cabins and the Denali Backcountry Lodge provide guests with the choice of visiting and taking advantage of the tourist facilities and tourist activities provided in Alaska by APPI's affiliate, CATC Alaska Tourism Corporation ("CATC"). CATC owns a number of hotel and resort properties in Alaska including the Talkeetna Alaskan Lodge in Talkeetna, the Seward Windsong Lodge in Seward and the Kenai Fjords Wilderness Lodge, located on Fox Island in Resurrection Bay. CATC also operates the Kenai Fjords Tours, with its substantial vessels providing maritime tours in Kenai Fjords National Park.

APPI and CATC are part of the adventure travel firm, Viad, Inc. a publicly traded adventure tourism and lodging company. The APPI and CATC operations comprise Viad's "Alaska Collection," a set of adventure travel, lodging and tourism assets that are unparalleled in Alaska or elsewhere. The seasonal tourism APPI's liquor licenses are of key importance to providing an enjoyable, stimulating and rewarding tourist experience for APPI's guests. A more complete description of the Alaska Collection and its many tourism offerings is set forth at www.alaskacollection.com.

This liquor license transfer application seeks the Board's approval of the transfer of the APPI liquor licenses to APPI's wholly owned subsidiary, CATC. By way of historical background, the Denali Cabins and the Denali Backcountry Lodge were acquired in September of 2011 by APPI. In March of 2016, CATC was acquired in a stock purchase of CIRI Alaska Tourism Corporation (formerly owned by Cook Inlet Region, Inc.) by APPI. The corporation's name was later changed to CATC Alaska Tourism Corporation. The acquisition of the Denali Backcountry Lodge and the Denali Cabins by CATC (which essentially involves consolidating the originally acquired APPI assets into the more recently acquired CATC operation in a conveyance of assets by the APPI as the parent corporation to CATC as the subsidiary corporation) will provide the opportunity for more efficient and streamlined financial management and operations that will provide for an even more rewarding and enjoyable vacation experience for CATC's guests and customers. Upon the completion of the transaction, APPI will remain the parent corporation of CATC as it is now, but all of the Alaska Collection travel and tourism assets will be held in CATC as a single Alaska vacation and tourism operating company.

Re: Denali Backcountry Lodge # 5130
Beverage dispensary license

Please find attached a copy of the Denali Backcountry Lodge survey and a drawing of the main lodge where alcohol is served and stored. The deck is not included in the service area as indicated on the building diagram.

While alcohol is only stored in the main lodge, we do serve lunch to our guests who arrive on our day tour that includes a 92 mile bus ride to our property and a two hour visit with lunch served at our day lodge and time to explore the area before getting back on the bus for the return trip. While at the day lodge, guests may order alcoholic beverages brought over from the main lodge. We do not store alcohol at the day lodge.

In addition, alcoholic beverages may delivered to guest rooms by TAPS trained staff.

Please contact feel free to contact me with any questions at 907.529.9881.
