Dear ABC Board;

The Reluctant Fisherman Inn, on the Cordova waterfront, overlooking the small boat harbor, has been the "go to" place for visitors and locals alike in Cordova for over 40 years. We continue the tradition, and have done major upgrades in the past 10 yrs. of our ownership. We offer 45 rooms to rent, some of which are available with a refrigerator and microwave, and two suites with either a full kitchen, or kitchenette. We also have a full service restaurant and bar. Alcohol is only permitted in the bar and restaurant area. We don't provide room service or stock alcohol in any of the rooms.

We are proud of the fact that our employees are all full time residents of Cordova, and many are full time employees. We run advertisements in the area visitor guides, we participate fully in all of the promotional programs of the local Chamber of Commerce, and participate in State wide promotions as well (Tour Saver coupon book, Milepost, etc.).

The City of Cordova has built and completed a large building called the Cordova Center. It houses our new museum, library, conferencing rooms and auditorium. This new facility has allowed Cordova, for the first time, to host small conferences. Indeed, our hotel has benefited from this community addition. The Reluctant Fisherman Inn is one block away from the new building, and we are seeing higher demand for rooms and visitor amenities. Expansion of additional rooms and catering facility at the Reluctant Fisherman Inn is in the near future to meet that demand.

Sincerely,

Gregory D. Meyer
