To whom it may concern:

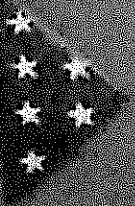

This letter is in response to the notice of violation received by us The New Peanut Farm (license # 842). The Facebook post that is mentioned in the letter we received was a picture of a poster made by K&L Distributors. It was advertising for a fundraising garage sale for families of fallen soldiers. The poster shows the date and time of the garage sale and also shows the dates from July 16th thru July 28th that $1.50 of each Budweiser sold would be donated to the charity. During that time Budweiser Pints were being sold for $3.75 and we actually sold Budweiser Pints for $3.75 from the 16th of July to the 30th of July. I also want to mention the garage sale was in the parking lot and we did not have alcohol available during the garage sale in the parking lot or any other food or drink. Any inference that we were going to sale Budweiser for $3.75 on that day only was not intentional and in the future we will do a better job scrutinizing any advertising we do.

Sincerely
Travis Block
