AMCO enforcement,

We would first like to address an error in the Notice of Violation, as it was addressed to Amalga Distillery doing business as Baranof Island Brewing Company. We are Amalga Distillery LLC doing business as Amalga Distillery.

As for the live band playing on August 25th, it was not a band that we had solicited or paid for performance. We did not know that they would begin playing music in our distillery, and when they began playing, we asked them to stop playing as soon as appropriate (it was a busy Friday night and we were in the middle of focusing on customers, but we addressed the issue within 10 minutes or less). This is not the first time that we have had this issue, and in every instance we have asked the musicians to stop playing and informed them of state regulations.

We have ample signage letting people know that no entertainment is allowed. Since the NOV, we have increased the number of signs as well as the visibility of signs. Previously, three signs were at the point of service. We now have also put signs at our front door.

Addressing the accusation that music "has been occurring on a regular basis" is a complete fallacy. During business hours, WE DO NOT ALLOW FOR LIVE MUSIC EVER.

Regards,
