Thank for the time to thoroughly look into this matter. Jennie already knows about the only current event tied to the KM liscence and has taken over the permit task for it.

Thank you,

Just a written follow up on our conversation on our meeting regarding future catering permit for our events.

This email serves as written notice due to the event that transpired on 7/20/2018 with food truck event and K St. Eats, where you were negligent to follow up on the specific procedure for the legal use of Klondike Mike's Liquor License, resulting in a notice of violation against Klondike Mike's license # 649.

After doing due diligence, I realize that your actions were not intentional, however I cannot risk any such action in the future, and our license, servers, and safety of our customers are of up most priority.

Effective immediately, you will no longer be authorized to apply for use of a catering permit, and any event that may be administered or hosted in conjunction with Klondike Mike's. This task will be handled exclusively by Jennie Westhoff, Manager and myself.

Please acknowledge receipt of this email.

Thank you,

Lilly Nyborg
