Re : Notice of Violation AMCO # 19-0615

Alcohol & Marijuana Control Office,

I deeply apologize for the misinformation on my part. Michele Shapiro from CHARR came to our business location last year and asked if we all needed to take our Alcohol server education course and was able to give my employees and I a brief summary of information before we took the test. As I was about to take the test, she saw my current TAP card and said it was past date and I was not able to take the test. Michele has recently agreed to come to our establishment and give us The Alcohol server education course privately whenever needed so that we can prevent a re-occurrence of this violation.

I always take a photo copy of each servers TAP when hired so that we are not under violation, but ultimately neglected my own. I apologize for the expired TAP and will ensure it will not happen again. Michele Shapiro is keeping in touch with me and will continue to help Windbreak keep TAP current.

Thank you,
Markie Andres
